Course Jottings

By OUR COURSE CORRESPONDENT

NEWMARKET, Thursday.

EIGHTEEN races to puzzle us tomorrow, so I shall put up three horses as the best bets of the day, starting with Easton.

At first glance I thought the Epsom Derby second would be a hot favourite for the Lingfield Spring Stakes, but I hear there may be good support for several others, including the Lincolnshire failure, Commander III. So we may get a fair price.

My second string is Lovers Walk, who has made the long hike from Lewes to Bogside to run in the Redburn Handicap Hurdle. He will manage this two miles better than the longer distance of his last race at Fontwell.

For my third string I take the Epsom dark 'un, Black Out, who has been well tried.

Selections.—Lingfield: 2.0, Nightmare; 2.30, Royal Venture; 3.0, Easton; 3.30, —; 4.0, Sarason; 4.30, Feud.

Worcester: 2.0, Private Present; 2.30, Black Out; 3.0, Battle Note; 3.30, Solfeggio; 4.0, —; 4.30, Black and Blue.

Bogside: 2.15, Lovers Walk (nap); 4.45, So Sorry.

TRAINING HINTS

HORSES EXPECTED TO DO WELL TODAY

NEWMARKET, Thursday.—Badruddin has been stretching out in nice style at exercise, and is expected to play a prominent part in the Lingfield Park Spring Stakes tomorrow, wires our resident correspondent.

My preference, however, is for Commander III., who moved with plenty of dash in his gallop, and did not reveal the best at Lincoln. Selections:—

LINGFIELD.—2.0, Admiral's Bridge; 2.30, Easton; 3.0, Commander III. (each way); 3.30, La Mamounia; 4.0, Double Up; 4.30, My Pretty.

BOGSIDE.—4.45, Bruce Bertram (good).

WORCESTER.—4.0, Gipsy Lass g (each way).

Reports from "Daily Express" resident correspondents at provincial centres are summarised below:—

LINGFIELD.

2.0.—Nightmare (Epsom) fancied. League Stone f. (Jevington) want beating.

2.30.—Royal Venture (Epsom) good.

3.0.—Easton (Beckhampton) well galloped, should win. Gay Adventure (Epsom) fancied.

4.0.—Acrostic (Epsom) go close.

4.30.—False Point (Epsom) fancied. Feud (Polegate) each way.

WORCESTER.

KNIGHTED RETAINS HIS FORM

NEAR RELATION BRINGS OFF "HAT TRICK"

By THE SCOUT

NEWMARKET, Thursday.

I HAVE written before of late that we must expect notable newcomers among the three-year-olds after such a dry 1934. Lord Glanely produced a dark 'un in Buckleigh, a real good-looking colt by Sansovino—Surbine, who won the Craven Stakes today.

It is rarely that Gordon Richards is on a 20—1 winner, but he made no bones about it when he drew ahead of the hard-pulling Zingaro and sailed past the post three lengths in front of Hindoo Holliday—who finished with a strong run near the rails to pass Zingaro by a length and a half.

Miss Paget's Desert Cloud also ran well, and Lord Astor's Plymouth Sound will win races. Maltravers was naturally waited with, but he couldn't get in an effective blow under his big burden.

Lord Glanely has Buckleigh in the Two Thousand and St. Leger, but the colt was withdrawn at the acceptance for the Derby last week. The stable is undoubtedly in the market after Screamer's easy win early in the week.

Buckleigh may be anything, and it is good to see Tommy Hogg with winners in the Colombo colours. Buckleigh cost Lord Glanely 5,300 guineas as a yearling.

Not Extended

KNIGHTED, the sensation-providing juvenile last season, reappeared as an easy winner of the Free Handicap, much to the satisfaction—as you can imagine—of his enthusiastic owner Mr. Chris Jarvis. I know that Percy Alden did not fear the seventh furlong.

As a matter of fact it was then that the gelding, although always hang up, asserted his clear superiority over Clematis and Caretta—who carried Lord Lonsdale's colours so boldly for six furlongs and was not driven out to the bitter end. Sprinting may be her forte, but she will run well in the One Thousand.

Captain "Jumbo" Jolliffe's Clematis is only a lean little filly and a promoted selling plater, but she had helped to set a fine gallop, and was only two lengths behind the winner and length in front of the well-drawn and fancied Gynerium from the Bobsleigh stable.

Then came Cartolina, Caretta, and Vermeil II., who ran quite well without ever promising to win. Knighted gave him 9lbs., so Frank Butters can estimate how Bahram and Theft now stand.

Consequential had displaced Vermeil II. for favouritism and started the 6's, but I could see from a long way outside that he had handicapped himself by starting a few lengths behind those on the stand side. He never looked like making up the leeway. Kingsem had too much to do, and Spatem will be better over shorter journeys. Nor did I pick out the northern hope Buhardo.

One In Nine

IT is strange now to think that on April 7 last year Knighted scrambled home in his debut in an Alexandra Park seller, and was bought in for 510 guineas.

His only defeat in nine races was when he figured in that head and short head affair with Flying Orders and Shahalt at Hurst Park in November.

You simply dare not leave these promoted platers out, and how glad Mr. Jarvis must now be that he did not sell Knighted when he was offered to a wealthy owner before the Ascot triumph. Arthur Wragg has got to know him well.

Nothing could have been easier than that of Frank Butters' win with Near Relation. Sir Alfred Butt's gelding undoubtedly possesses the stamina of a worthy Son in Law. It was his third success off the reel, and he drew right away from Captain Courageous, who was one of the few fancied to beat the hot favourite.

Butters' hopes of a foursome were reduced to a double, for the well-galloped New Radnor, after running a bit green, cut paid to French Kiss colt and justified the acceptance of evens in the Bartlow Stakes.

THREE meetings to tackle tomorrow. Real interest centres in the reappearance of Easton over the fast mile of the Lingfield Park Stakes. Fred Darling has been quiet so far, but I am prepared to find that his high-class French colt has made more than the average improvement from three to four years.

The Coronation Cup clash with Windsor Lad and Unidwar is the big idea. The Umidwar stable will tilt against him now with a proved good miler in Badruddin, while Briscoe will give Commander III. another chance; and I recall that Caymanas was not wound up when he reappeared to win the Hunt Cup last year.

Lawson still has some belief in Valerius, and another maiden four-year-old in the long-absent Black Devil will also be in receipt of a stone. Many will, however, look for the fit three-year-old Sea Bequest—who has been advertised by Tiderace—to prove the main danger, and Byndford Bridge, who beat Maltravers and Ormenis at York as a juvenile.

Lord Carnarvon's French importation, Monico, and Copia will make up the field. I must, of course, stand Easton to beat Badruddin.

Lincoln Pointers

BOTH Acrostic—who has the penalised Trapster to beat—and Polly Jerome look to have excellent handicap chances on their Lincoln running, as Wonston, Swift, Reynard, and Spinifex have done so well since.

Bridge of Avon, who hit the s.p. layers when landing a 20—1 chance at Newbury, should win easily again at Worcester, and Coron should certainly see the winner's tail.

Wild Blossom, Ballinluig and Diagram have already run well, and Solfeggio will appreciate the softer ground than at Newbury, where Rimmelblau won a seller. I prefer them to Bon Soldat at the weights.

It is mixed at Bogside, where Briscoe should win with Bruce Bertram. Gore's charge, Cooleen, is expected to make a bold bid in Mr. Rank's colours in the Scottish Grand National on Saturday.

HOW THEY RAN

BY OUR COURSE CORRESPONDENT.

NEWMARKET.

2.0.—Habnab led to the dip, where Cyclone went on and won in better time than Desert Night and Tetrazone put up on previous days.

2.30.—Spanish State, first away, led to the Bushes. Near Relation drew away; won easily. Buchanette finished fast to get third place.

3.0.—Caretta led to Bushes, weakened; Clematis drew to front. Knighted moved up on rising ground and won comfortably. Caretta and Cartolina close up to placed horses.

3.30.—Buckleigh soon had lead; convincing win, easing up. Hindoo Holliday came with late run to second place. Desert Cloud ran well.

4.0.—Constant Lady whipped round at start. New Radnor, heavily backed, was always winning.

4.30.—Doch-an-Doris led, and only weakened on meeting the hill. Shallfeet won easily. Comic Relief and Golden Bow ran neck and neck.

ADMIRAL'S BRIDGE FANCIED

EASTON'S RIVALS WILL NEED ALL THE LUCK

By BENDEX.

NEWMARKET, Thursday.

HATS off to Knighted! Mr. Chris Jarvis' ex-plater ran on with the greatest courage to win the Free Handicap. I never expected him to get the seventh furlong, but a following wind helped him.

Buckleigh made a smashing debut in the Craven Stakes. Not quite so striking as Colombo in the same colours last year, but the issue was never in doubt during the last two furlongs. Zingaro, like many Solarios, curled up when pressure was applied.

Briscoe trains a nice horse for Miss Paget in Desert Cloud, who finished fourth. This is only half a horse at present.

We move south, west, and north tomorrow. For the best bet of the day I single out Admiral's Bridge (Lingfield, 2.0).

SPORTS INQUIRY CORNER

M. T. G. (Mitcham).—Crystal Palace Reserves did not play on Saturday.

who had been fairly well galloped before finishing second to the smart Papilla filly at Liverpool. Nightmare can be fancied a bit, and there is a race in Poor Bum. I don't think either have claims to beat Mr. Foster's plater.

Commander III., Caymanas, Badruddin, and Sea Bequest take on Easton (3.0). Good luck to 'em! They will need some. Easton can fly over a mile. He might even lower Blue Pete's record.

Dalila filly (3.30) showed speed at Newbury, and will be better suited by this course. Dornoch, who did not have the best of luck last time out, leads to be chief danger. Tagra filly is also said to go a bit, and Where Am I is fairly smart.

Brown Study has an each-way chance (4.0). The same applies to Polly Jerome (4.30), who ran well against Spinifex and Cresset at Lincoln. The form now looks good.

On Ern (3.0) and Bridge of Avon (4.0) may be a likely two for Worcester. Caretta showed promise behind Lutface at Lincoln. Burglar (3.45) and Freezy (4.45) are my two for Bogside.
