SEA BEQUEST RUNS HOT FAVOURITE TO A NECK

LINGFIELD STAKES THRILL

FRED DARLING'S FIRST

By THE SCOUT

THERE is rarely a Lingfield Park Spring Stakes without a thrill. Richards had still looked like cantering home on Easton as they passed the spot where the first judge's box is usually pitched, but the final verdict over the progressive three-year-old Sea Bequest was only a neck!

Richards said he did not hear the warning shouts from those in Tattersall's as the horses were passing and Sea Bequest, who had switched over to the leader's left, was obviously carrying through a vigorous challenge. But Gordon certainly began to bring his hands into play suddenly and pushed Lord Woolavington's champion all the way then without taking any further risks.

But those of us who were some way from the finish were surprised to find it only a neck, while the man on top did not think that Sea Bequest had got to his girths.

Commander III., who was prominent in the early running, was six lengths away in front of Caymanas. The long-priced Badruddin was badly drawn, began slowly and did not improve much. He wants more time.

* * *

Honest Easton

SEA BEQUEST deserves full marks for his excellent show under a penalty. He beat unsuccessful riders like Valerius and Black Devil at 10lbs., and he had to change his pitch—because, I thought, Easton altered his direction slightly before they reached the distance.

Easton has become a good, level-looking colt, and he is so honest. The form with Commander III. last autumn worked out true enough. The going was dead, if not heavy—as the recorded time proved—and it had looked a wee bit risky to let Easton slow himself down once. I have seen trouble occur before at the "first post."

Still, the gallop is bound to benefit several more chasers Easton—who provided Fred Darling with his first win this season. Easton runs again at the next Newmarket meeting as a preliminary to the Coronation Cup. Classic engagements were made for Sea Bequest, who can run in Jack Jarvis' stable in the Two Thousand.

* * *

BOLD ARCHER'S two-year-olds continue to do well, and Fondness—filly, who was backed down to 4's, won the Spring Plate very easily.

Double Up, joint favourite for the Felbridge Handicap, was desperately ridden home with Richards' whip swinging right up, and E. Smith pressing him all the way home on Eastern Lass. Red Raider did better than Acrostic, who was running on after being crowded at the start in a big field.

Kyles of Bute came through strongly to hold off Artful Lad in the mile and a half handicap, but Polly Jerome could not get a challenge in nearer the rails.

* * *

JACK JARVIS accepted with four in Lingfield's Leigh Memorial Handicap, but will only run Felswood. Boston West may be waiting to carry local colours at Nottingham.

Felswood is allowed 4lbs. for a narrow defeat when he was fourth to Celestielle on the course last November, but I shall stand him. I cannot trust Childs' mount, Ajax, after Newbury, but Richards' mount, Brecknock, seems well in if in trim yet. I also respect Flint Man and Golden Scroll.

I noted George Here's speed when third at Newbury, and in the possible absence of Southern Cross I go nap on Saxby's youngster against the newcomer Pippa Passes filly—whose dam could fly as a juvenile. Walter Nightingall runs Zanzibar instead of New Era in a maiden plate.

Scottish National

PLANS have been changed with Cooleen, who will now wait for the Lancashire 'Chase at Manchester, and Mr. Rank—who will also see Solenoid in a flat race—will rely upon Shangar in the Scottish Grand National.

The course should suit Brienz, and possibly also Kellsboro' Jack and Blue Prince will be in the field. I think, however, that Nicholson's mount, Keen Blade, may be the best each-way bet in Lord Rosebery's colours.

Free Fare is all right again, and seems well in the Evesham Handicap at Worcester, where Monkshood will carry Mr. Martin Benson's colours for the first time. Shelly's Lane is fit, but may be overweighted.

TRAINING HINTS

HORSES EXPECTED TO RUN WELL

NEWMARKET, Friday.—Felswood has done extremely well in recent fast gallops, and with ordinary luck will take a lot of beating in the Leigh Memorial Handicap at Lingfield tomorrow, wires our resident correspondent.

Moonsong has improved since her first outing, and is worth support in the Mapleton Plate, while in choosing between Newton Plate I give slight preference to the latter. Selections:—

LINGFIELD.—2.30, Sibylla (danger Newmarket); 3.0, Felswood; 3.30, Bachelor's Gown; 4.0, Antar II.; 4.30, Moonsong.

WORCESTER.—3.15, Ca-y-Est f.

Reports from "Daily Express" resident correspondents at provincial centres are summarised below:—

FOUR BEST BETS TODAY

GEORGE HERE AN EACH-WAY NAP

By BENDEX.

WORCESTER, Friday.

GOLDEN KING has always been better at five than six furlongs. He dropped out a furlong from home in the Hallow Selling Plate here today.

Golden Earl, who looked a picture, beat Wild Blossom decisively by a head. I was surprised when the objection flag was hoisted. Bookmakers betted four to one on the winner keeping the race.

Sea Pride put up a better performance in winning the Pitchcroft Plate than the form on paper implies. Dark Deeds, third in front of Battle Note, is another to follow.

Charlie Smirke was well away on Master Joe in the two-year-old seller, and Nicoll on Silver Mystery colt could never make up the lost ground.

Hlimmelblau stayed on strongly to win Thimble out of the Stayers' Handicap. Black Tulip looked dangerous halfway up the straight, but the ten-pound penalty told its tale.

MIXTURE AS BEFORE

Same three meetings tomorrow—and races of all descriptions. The four bets I fancy most are Tell Tale filly (Lingfield, 3.30), George Here (each-way nap, 4.30), Ca-y-Est (Worcester, 3.15), and Monkshood (4.15).

George Here, badly drawn at Newbury, showed a tremendous burst of speed in finishing third to Glenaffaric. The less severe Lingfield course will suit him.

Tell Tale filly finished with Cyclone behind Under Thirty at Lincoln. She did not appear to have the best of luck in running that day.

Ca-y-Est, another useful two-year-old plater, has nothing like the same class to beat as when unplaced to Papilla filly at Liverpool. Monkshood has to carry 9st. 9lbs and give weight to such as Mossoro and Free Fare. He is a good 'un, though, and I do not expect to see him beaten.

Keen Blade, with Nicholson riding, is fancied to win the Scottish Grand National at Bogside. I shall go for Blue Prince, the obvious horse, who was probably unlucky not to have won the National.
