FRENCH HUNT CUP WINNER PAYS 221 TO 1 IN RECORD TOTE

PRIOK'S SUCCESS MAKES ASCOT BLACKER THAN EVER

Brantome One Of Several Odds-On Hopes Today

By THE SCOUT

ASCOT is still on. There are two more days of it. Plenty of time for it to become blacker than ever and for more winners like Priok, a French gelding, who started among the 66—1 others in a field of thirty-seven for the Hunt Cup, and paid 221—1 to win (and 60's for a place) in the tote and obliged by a length, despite Captain Percy Whitaker's young apprentice, S. Middleton, coming right across the course in the process.

He was drawn No. 14, but finished nearer the stands side. So did most of the others.

I met few lucky backers who had got 100—1 in the ring against Priok, who was really well in with 7st. 6lbs. on French form, but I know that the greater part of four figures of inspired money had gone on him when only third in a modest handicap at Wolverhampton last week.

He accompanied M. Leon Volterra's Mary Tudor over before the Cambridgeshire, was left to go into Whitaker's stable, and is now a gelding.

Mr. H. Barnard-Hankey, the young owner, is an Old Etonian in the City, and has also an interest in a well-known starting-price firm.

The trainer explained that he ran Priok for the first time in blinkers yesterday, and ordered the boy to come right through with it, and it worked the oracle, for Newmarket had voted him ungenerous.

Priok was only following in the footsteps of his French sire Asterus, who won the Hunt Cup eight years ago for M. Boussac, who also scored with a French stayer yesterday. Getting ready for Brantome, eh?

Solid Mass

I HAVE rarely seen such a remarkable spectacle in the Hunt Cup, made more colourful by the unusual number of greys in that solid mass, for practically all of them had seemed to bunch over towards the stand side as they came over the brow of the hill.

The starter told me, however, that, apart from a bit of kicking, it was a good send-off in the circumstances, but there was the inevitable crop of hard luck stories later.

Scattercash, for whom E. Smith had been claimed, was second in the race for a second time and half a length in front of another long-shot in Llanarmon.

with Almond Hill and Shining Tor (who remained further out) close together a little behind the placed horses.

Badruddin and the pace-making Abaris were next, in front of Flamenco and Hidalgo. Many finished very close together.

I do not say that Almond Hill would have beaten Priok, who must have scored with greater ease if he had kept a straight course, but there would not have been much in it if luck had been on her side.

She was drawn "30," and Harry Wragg, in coming over, had often to change from right to left and back again, and almost snatch her up on several occasions.

The trainer also shares my view, and she will probably take on Easton at the 11lbs. today.

Draw Beat Them

I CONFIRMED that draw and going beat Wychwood Abbot, and Gordon made no excuse for the well-drawn second favourite Dignitary. He was only there for five furlongs or so, and then Priok dodged across the hill lot. The well-tried Law Maker gave best at half-way.

I may mention that there was a record tote pool in the Hunt Cup, £29,250, being £2,309 in excess of that on the Derby last year.

After a further blow over Golden Mariiet—who was just beaten in Pike Barn's race—it was refreshing to see the way another of Lord Astor's three-year olds, in the Derby third, Field Trial, relished his job in the King Edward VII. Stakes, and I have said before he will be nearer Bahram in the St. Leger, for he comes on with every race.

Ankaret compensated for her narrow Epsom defeat by taking the Coronation Stakes for Mrs. G. B. Miller. Plugging along in front she more than confirmed Oaks running with Coronal. It is generally the most valuable race at Ascot.

The lucky owner is a member of a rich family in South Wales, and as Miss Talbot she decided to go into ownership. Fred Butters exceeded her "limit" when he bought two Blandford yearlings cheaply instead of one, and both fillies have brought her novice's luck.

Won It Again

MR. CHRIS JARVIS, the retired fruit merchant, can surely claim a record with Knighted, who won the Fern Hill Stakes again. He had scored last year as a juvenile, and has only twice been beaten. He overhauled the younger Swift Arrow and came away from Kingsem, who prefers firm ground.

Frank Butters had looked a bit staggered after Hindoo Holiday—who seemed to pull up a bit groggy on Tuesday—and another of the Aga Khan's odds-on chances in Umidwar "went" even sooner in the first race yesterday.

He had once gone out to 6—4 against, but 5—4 was asked for at the start. He was so leg weary and sorry for himself at the beginning of the straight that many of us thought for a time that something had gone wrong with him, but he walked away sound.

Butters will not now run Achtenan in the Gold Cup.

Although I am not exaggerating the form shown in the Churchill Stakes, the way Charlie Elliott brought the sticking French four-year-old, Denver II., to settle Enfield and the more modest Brush and Comb, will not make Brantome any easier to back in the Gold Cup today.

Denver II.—who had shied at the gate and was last for a long way—had won over a mile and six furlongs in France last year, and he was as well backed as Enfield, who did not look in his autumn trim. Denver II. will, like Felicitation last year, endeavour to complete the double in the Gold Cup.

By the way, Armour Bright—a 5—2 chance—ran only modestly. He could not quicken in the Bessborough Handicap, won by Peacock's Cariff. The Irishman scored comfortably under pressure.

The Super Horse

WINDSOR LAD — Easton — Brantome —Tiberius. What a repast to put before a Thursday crowd at Ascot, and I am told that Vanbrugh, who also runs, might prove that Beckhampton possesses the best juvenile seen out.

The only clashing will be Brantome and Tiberius, and though I am one of the greatest admirers of Tiberius, who was staying on when second in the St. Leger, it seems a little too much to expect that he can beat France's super-horse over any distance.

I am sure, however, that Tiberius will get the course in a true-run race, and Lord Astor's Bright Bird—from the same Manton stable—has liked to be in front, so the six runners will not be crawling by any means.

Brantome has won over a distance in France, but I hear that it was not a fast race before Boulton, amid the usual proud Gaelic shouts, finished with a spectacular fifteen lengths win.

Like Carbine they say he is good for five furlongs as well as five miles. Lawson is convinced, however, that Tiberius will make the invader race, and he must be our English hope. The stable is in form. Sir Abe Bailey won with the sire, Foxlaw.

The stamina of Alcazar and Caymanas, who won the Hunt Cup last year, have to be taken more on trust, but we know their speed. Still Denver II. won't be last.

Silence

AN expert who is staying at Ascot saw Brantome out again yesterday morning. "He was much cooler and collected than yesterday," he told me, "but he suggested that some of his connections seemed to treat him too much as though he were 'not a horse.'"

Silence is kept while Brantome is about, and it is a question whether all this is best for any horse, super or otherwise.

I still hear Gordon's mount, Pampas Grass, in receipt of 25lbs., is expected to put Windsor Lad to the test over a distance under a mile, but I have no qualms after the dazzling show in the Coronation Cup.

The race for the Rous Memorial comes nearly an hour after the Gold Cup. Hairon waits to accompany the fancied Powerful Prince against Sea Bequest in the Waterford Stakes.

Jottings From The Course

By OUR COURSE CORRESPONDENT.

ASCOT, Wednesday.

THE programme down for decision tomorrow does not look inviting from a small punter's point of view, for we shall probably have to lay good odds on Easton, Brantome, and Windsor Lad for their respective races.

There may be some patriotic support for Tiberius in the Gold Cup, but the best I can hope for is that the Manton four-year-old will be runner-up to the French champion.

Hawk-Eye makes very strong appeal to me in the Granville Stakes. He has not been out since narrowly beaten by Mark Time and Bellacose at Newmarket in April, and he is 4 or 5lbs. better off with these two now.

I have mentioned Windsor Lad in the Rous Memorial Stakes, but one must not lose sight of the fact that this is only a little over seven furlongs, and he has to give Pampas Grass nearly two stone.

This season Pampas Grass gave the Oaks winner, Quashed, 6lbs. and a four and a-half lengths beating. Earlier he gave the Derby third and today's winner, Field Trial, 12lbs. and a good beating.

I shall take a gambling chance and vote for Pampas Grass, feeling that Windsor Lad may not be able to give 16lbs. more than weight-for-age to Elsey's smart three-year-old.

Selections:—1.30, Easton; 2.30, Brantome; 3.0, Hawk-Eye; 3.30, Pampas Grass; 4.0, Desert Night; 4.30, Inflation; 5.0, Winandermere.

A dividend of £775 12s. for 5s. was won by Miss Dunn, of Toowoomba, who was the only punter, states Reuter, to name the winners of the Brisbane Cup and Novice Handicap for the totalisator double of the Queensland Turf Club.

5 to 1 NAP

"WHAT THE BOOK SAYS" again in splendid form. Two five to one winners:—

PIKE BARN (nap) ... 5—1

ANKARET ... ... 5—1

These two formed the Ascot TOTE DOUBLE, which returned a dividend of £9 9s., equal to 18 to 1.

On the first day at Ascot "What The Book Says" gave Assignation, which won at 100 to 8.

Priok (1), Scattercash (2), Llanarmon (3), Almond Hill (4), the big "turn up" in the Hunt Cup at Ascot.

TRAINING HINTS

HORSES EXPECTED TO RUN WELL TODAY

NEWMARKET, Wednesday.—Our best chance of beating the French crack, Brantome, in the Ascot Gold Cup tomorrow seems to rest with Achtenan, wires our resident correspondent.

Powerful Prince has been well tuned up with a view to the Waterford Stakes, but I think he will find one a bit too good for him in Sea Bequest, who showed to fine advantage in a recent gallop with Flamenco, and will find conditions underfoot exactly to his liking.

The greatly improved Kentish Glory should be noted for the Cork and Orrery Stakes, while in choosing between Grey Monarch and Bellacose for the Granville Stakes I give slight preference to the latter. Selections:—

1.30, Papyrette. 2.30, Achtenan. 3.0, Bellacose. 3.30, Hairan. 4.0, Mahmoud (e.w.). 4.30, Sea Bequest. 5.0, Kentish Glory.

Reports from "Daily Express" resident correspondents at provincial centres are summarised below:—

1.30.—Easton (Beckhampton) good. Gay Adventure (Epsom) each way.

2.30.—Tiberius (Manton) fancied.

3.30.—Pampas Grass (Malton) good each way. Windsor Lad (Lambourn) "will win."

4.0.—Vanbrugh (Beckhampton) good. Desert Night (Epsom) fancied. Bossover c (Oxhourne) go close.

4.30.—Wonston (Weyhill) each way.

5.0.—The Divot (Lewes) fancied. Flying Spear II. (Beckhampton) go close.

THE IRISH DERBY

M. D. Peacock, the Middleham trainer, has ordered a horse-box for the Curragh races next week, presumably for Sir T. Dixon's Listol, engaged in the Irish Derby, to be run on Wednesday.

HOW THEY RAN

By OUR COURSE CORRESPONDENT.

ASCOT, Wednesday.

1.30.—Caracol set the pace and was three lengths clear of Intervener after five furlongs. At the distance Caracol weakened, and Denver II. came on. Enfield ran on well to get second.

2.30.—Good start. After two furlongs Abaris was forcing the pace ahead of Dignitary, with Flamenco, Almond Hill, Badruddin, Priok, and Guinea Gap prominent. Just after half-way Priok pulled to the front and, outstaying Llanarmon and Scattercash (who came on the scene late) won fairly comfortably.

3.0.—Monmouth, Golden Martlet, and Pike Barn were most prominent to half-way. Two furlongs from home Pike Barn drew out to win easily.

AN "EASY"

3.30.—Field Trial led for five furlongs, and was then given an "easy," Roulette racing ahead. Foxdale flattered approaching the straight, but Field Trial had no difficulty in regaining the lead and keeping it.

4.0.—Good deal of trouble at the start, Coppella unseating her jockey and galloping riderless with the others. Ankaret led, Clerestory being last. In the last furlong Ankaret still led, and held off strong late run from Clerestory.

4.30.—Swift Arrow jumped off first and led to half-way, where he weakened. Knighted, always handy, went on and won in good style.

5.0.—Cariff and Symptom cut out the work, but Philip took the lead in Swinley Bottom. In the straight Rock Star got ahead, but at the distance Cariff asserted his superiority and won comfortably.
