AND COLOMBO GOES TO 7 TO 4 Lo Zingaro Not to Run at Gatwick?

ROUGH RIDING

By BOUVERIE

WORK on Newmarket Heath yesterday morning was almost as interesting as the racing which followed to wind up the spring series at headquarters. Colombo and Umidwar were, of course, the big attractions and although neither was "all out" in their training spins Colombo did enough to prove that he continues to go the right way, and Umidwar to show that he is by no means the forlow hope many appear to imagine forlorn hope many appear to imagine.

* * The Aga Khan's colt shaped well against Badruddin and Light Brocade over a mile and a quarter, and when the Derby card was called over in the evening he was so well backed that 100 to 12 was the best offer at the finish. Windsor Lad at 10 to 1 also had plenty of backers, with the result that Colombo once again went to 7 to 4—the price his admirers "wanted" at the last call over. Admiral Drake —who has better form than Easton in France— was backed at 22 to 1. which may be the was backed at 22 to 1, which may be longest price that will be laid against him. he the

Lo Zingaro Doubts

Meanwhile it looks as if we may have to wait a little longer for the solution of the Beck-hampton problem--whether Lo Zingaro or Easton is the chief hope of the stable. Lo Zingaro is engaged in the Home Bred Cup at Gatwick to day, but it is unlikely that he will be saddled if the going is at all firm, which it is at the moment on parts of the round course. * * *

Tiberius, one of Sir Abe Bailey's Derby colts, gained a stylish victory in the Payne Stakes yesterday, albeit his path was made easier by the absence of Patriot King. The distance was a mile and a half, and he won like a good stayer; but although he may be a better one than Valerius at Epsom, the performance hardly puts him in line as a serious rival to Colombo.

Surprises

Surprises Several typical Newmarket surprises marked the other races—notably the victories of Red Raider, who won the Norfolk Stakes for Tom Walls, and Ben, who upset Greenore in the Flying Handicap. An upset of another sort prefaced the latter race, as, after the number of Whin had appeared in the frame, it was withdrawn, because the filly had been sent home, and the declaration was left in by mis-take. Naturally, betting was at sixes and sevens as a consequence, but Ben's victory left the bookmakers with no hard-luck stories.

* * Wearing the April the Fifth colours, Lane rode a great finish on Red Raider, to get up close home and defeat the hot favourite, Graceful Lad, in the Norfolk Stakes. Gilpin's

FROM THE STABLES

NEWMARKET, Thursday. We shall not have many runners it Gatwick or Haydock to-morrow, but for all that there are bright prospects of a few prizes coming to headquarters. Homily has not looked back since outstaying

Recent events have brought a timely warning to jockeys that rough and reckless riding will not be tolerated. The matter was brought up at the meeting of the Jockey Club on Wednes-day, when the stewards expressed the hope that members of the club, when acting as local stewards, would deal severely with any cases brought before them.

Gatwick Prospects

Whether Lo Zingaro runs or stays away, I hear that Homily is expected to take a lot of beating for the Home Bred Cup to-day. The colt certainly won in nice style at New-market. He should do so again—if Lo Zin-garo is absent. Dusk looks the pick of some useful three-year-olds in the Alexandra Han-dicap, and he deserves a winning turn after his unlucky defeat at Newbury. Sunny Paim is a likely one for a place.

Maid of Arches, a runner for the Worth Plate, will be better recognised as the Rodomontade filly, who won in such good style at Newmarket a fortnight ago. That victory, however, was gained in selling plate company.
and she may not be good enough to beat Cartolima, who has not had the best of luck so far.
Spring Morning is another fancied runner from Lambourn in the Reigate Handicap, in which False Point should be placed.
Tetrapod is in such good form at present that a rise in the handicap may not prevent her scoring again in the Makerfield Plate at Haydock Melfort, also from Weyhill, is expected to play a big part in the Our Welcome Stakes,
but he has been a big disappointment so far,
and it may be safer to rely on Conversion.

The proposed boxing match between the well-known jockeys G. Nicoll and C. Smirke, which was to have taken place at Birmingham on June 11, has been abandoned. Sir Abe Bailey, for whom Nicoll rides, has expressed the wish that he shall not box, as he might meet with some injury to his hands and be unable to ride for a time in consequence.
