

DERBY TEST SETS NEW EPSOM PUZZLE
MEDIEVAL KNIGHT SCORES
SHORT HEAD WIN

Umidwar Shines in a Good Gallop
COLOMBO'S SPIN

By BOUVERIE

ON Saturday morning it would have been possible to have obtained 50 to 1 against Medieval Knight for the Derby. Nothing like those odds will be offered when the card is called-over to-day after his spectacular victory in the Derby Trial Sweepstakes at Lingfield.

On his Newbury form, when he made his first appearance this season, Medieval Knight was a good thing to beat Tiberius since the Mantion horse was receiving 13lb. and was four lengths behind.

Not Back Yet

Still, although Medieval Knight showed on Saturday that his "slide" was not as bad as it first appeared, his performance cannot be said to have put him back on the pedestal from which he had fallen.

The question now is, whether Lo Zingaro or Easton are considered much better than Medieval Knight. The question will no doubt have its answer in the one Richards rides on Wednesday week.

Four for Epsom

Instead of taking his part in the Lingfield race, Badruddin stayed at home to help Umidwar in one of the best gallops done so far at Newmarket.

Colombo was also sent the full Derby distance, and found Red Horizon a poor sort of galloping companion. The "schoolmaster," ridden by Crickmere, was given three lengths' start, but before they had gone very far Colombo had taken the lead and Red Horizon was a long way astern when the favourite pulled up.

Myrobella's Return

Myrobella ran in a handicap for the first time when she reappeared at Lingfield on Saturday. Naturally, she was called upon to concede a lot of weight, but her brilliant speed pulled her through after Spirituelle II had

TURF BRIEFLETS

After finishing unplaced in the Cliff Handicap at Manchester, Lady Eagle was sold for seven guineas.

Gordon Richards will be riding at Bath and Salisbury. W. Wells has engagements at York and Doncaster.

There has been an appreciable fall of rain at York, and the going to-morrow will be found to be in very good order.

G. Nicoll will be riding at Bath to-morrow, York on Wednesday, Salisbury on Thursday and Friday, and at Windsor on Saturday.

Cynic, Result, and a gelding by Friar Marcus—Rosula, the property of Miss Dorothy Paget, have joined D. G. Snow's team at Eastbury to be trained.

Kingswood, the winner of the Red Rose Stakes at Manchester on Saturday, paid a tote dividend of £10 4s. to 2s., equivalent to odds of 101 to 1.

The jockeys on the first three horses in the Sterberg Handicap at Lingfield on Saturday are all attached to Wootton's stable. B. Rook was on Hindustan, Hawcroft rode Kolic, and A. Smirke was on Antidote.

Tiberius leading at the start of the Derby Trial Sweepstakes at Lingfield on Saturday. Medieval Knight (No. 6) was the winner, and Tiberius was second.

put up a good fight. Figaro again finished in front of Manitoba, in spite of the big difference in the weights compared with Newbury, and so did March Tor, who only just missed third place.

Beckhampton's other flyer, Merenda, was beaten by a big weight in the Red Rose Stakes at Manchester, but although unplaced, she shaped well enough to suggest that her turn will come again shortly.

Another big surprise was the failure of Greenore in the Salford Borough Handicap. The top weight found Corrado going too fast for him throughout, and the pacemaker lasted just long enough to share the prize with Sudan, who got up in the last few strides to make a dead-heat.

£20 for a Postcard

My weekly prizes have become so popular that I am offering another £20 to the reader who forecasts the result of the Great Northern Handicap at York on Thursday. Write the names of the horses you think will be first, second and third on a postcard, and address it to—Bouverie, "Daily Mirror," 14, Bream's Buildings, Fetter-lane, E.C.4 (Comp).

They should reach me not later than first post Thursday, May 31. Only one attempt may be made. Horses remaining in the race will be found on this page.

FRENCH RACING RESULT

The Prix Lupin, run at Longchamp yesterday, resulted in a win for Brantoma. Shining Tor was second and Arkina third. Betting against 5 francs stake was: 7 francs win, place, 5 francs 50 cents, second 14 francs, third 12 francs 50 cents. There were eight runners.

ONE-HAND WIN FOR HARRY MIZLER

Light-weight Champion Outpoints Frenchman at the Ring

PLUCKY LOSER

Although he boxed for eight rounds with an injured right hand, Harry Mizler, of St. George's, the British light-weight champion, had no difficulty in defeating Tiger Defer, of France, on points in a ten rounds contest at the Ring, London, yesterday.

Mizler gave a great display of left-hand punching, and won practically every round. Defer landed an occasional right-hand punch to the head, but never looked like extending the champion.

He was a plucky loser and took considerable punishment.

It was one of Mizler's best displays since he won the light-weight title, and considerably enhanced his stock, which had fallen in recent fights.

In other contests Johnny Rust (South Africa) outpointed Curley Merritt (Silvertown); Arthur Crane (Battersea) and Billy Curran (Walton) boxed a draw, and Billy Nash (Clerkenwell) beat Harry Orton (Leicester), the referee intervening in the eleventh round.

NEW CHANCE FOR PHILLIPS

His Injured Knee Has Mended Satisfactorily and He Has a Busy Time Ahead

In view of the fact that Eddie Phillips may have another chance to win the cruiser-weight championship, his match with Theo Sass, of Belgium, at Wandsworth Greyhound Stadium on the night of Derby Day, June 6, assumes additional importance.

Phillips has fully recovered from his injured knee and has been boxing with all his old dash and skill. He is most anxious to keep himself fit by fighting more often, and his contest with Sass will be the prelude to a more vigorous campaign in the ring.

Phillips will need to be at his best to beat Sass, who is the ex-light-heavy-weight champion of Europe, and, naturally, a man of considerable experience.

He has fought heavy-weights with success and has had several contests in this country, in all of which he has done well.
