QUICK TURN IN BETTING

Fine Week Anticipated for Manton

UMIDWAR'S TASK

By BOUVERIE

After the glowing reports from Newmarket concerning Enfield's progress I was quite prepared to see Solar Boy eventually ousted from favouritism for the Cesarewitch, but I must confess that I was hardly prepared for such a quick change over as that which took place at yesterday's call over. From 100 to 9—and 15 to 1 a week ago—Enfield's price was cut to 8 to 1, and if conditions remain as they are at present it will be shorter than that when the numbers go into the frame. Sirett rides Captain Boyd-Rochford's candidate.

One thing we do know about Enfield is that he is in no way handicapped by firm ground. On the other hand, Solar Boy, Hands Off, Polly Stephens and Roi de Paris all prefer it on the soft side, and only an abnormal rainfall would put the going in that state to-morrow. At present the course is in well-nigh perfect condition, and indications are that it will remain so.

Too Firm

Already Martin Hartigan has decided that the ground is too firm for the veteran Saint Reynard, and although none of the others I have mentioned will stay away for the same reason it is obvious that their chances must be affected. Roi de Paris in particular looks like being at a big disadvantage, and it will not surprise me to see a swing round in favour of Cotoneaster at the expense of her stable companion, Solar Boy.

Cotoneaster, like Enfield, has shown her best form on firm going, and although beaten at the last meeting she was by no means disgraced. In her case it is chiefly a question whether she possesses the stamina for a 2½ mile race across the stiffest gallop in England. No such doubts exist where Enfield is concerned. In his case the problem is whether the handicapper originally really gave him 10lb. too little.

That "Mixed" Gallop

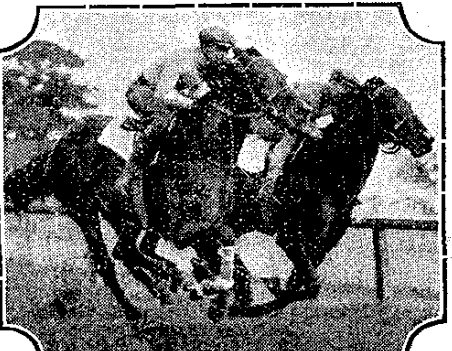

Apart from Enfield and Solar Boy the pair that continue to interest the professional element are Spring Morning and Polly Stephens. The latter according to all accounts did a bit more in that Manton spin than was suggested at the time. On the other hand mixed gallops are often misleading and it must be a bit against Polly Stephens that she has not had a race since the spring.

The three I like most at the moment are Spring Morning, Enfield and Cotoneaster, with a slight preference for the first-named. Hard ground kept her off a racecourse for most of the summer, but she has come back to her best form since conditions changed, and with better luck in running might have been first instead of fourth at Nottingham last week.

Change of Luck?

Recent doings of Manton horses indicate a change in the luck of a stable that, like Beckhampton, has been out of touch with fortune for most of the year. It is doubtful if Dona Sol or Shining Cloud will be quite good enough for the big race, but there will surely be some winners among the many others that go to Newmarket this week.

With another furlong to go compared with his race at the previous meeting, Sevrier is quite likely to lead off a winner in the Alington Stakes, and Beresfell—also beaten by Maltravers a fortnight ago—has a nice chance of going one better in the Clearwell Stakes. Fresh Fox will be an obvious danger if saddled

STABLE NEWS

Newmarket's Best for To-day at Second October Meeting

PROVINCIAL HINTS

NEWMARKET, Monday.

The Champion Stakes and the Newmarket Oaks are the chief events at the opening stage of the Second October Meeting to-morrow.

Frank Butters will saddle Master Vere, Umidwar, and Badruddin for the Champion Stakes.

They galloped together on Saturday, and I should say they are at the top of their form.

H. Wragg was on the back of Campanula when galloped on Saturday, and she pleased very much. However, I like Umidwar best.

The Newmarket Oaks may go to Pip Emma. She has no Felicitation to beat on this occasion.

Sans Atout, a stable companion of Pip Emma, is nicely weighted in the Ditch Mile Nursery. Racker on his second to Veldtschoen at Newbury holds a sound chance in the Alington Stakes.

In the Clearwell Stakes Racla colt should not be missed. He has won his last two races and is in splendid trim. HEATHMAN.

FROM OTHER QUARTERS

Lambourn.—Runners at Newmarket are Lady Trigo and Miltonic (1.45) and Cheiro and Quirinal (3.45).

Middleham.—Left for Newmarket: Denbigh (well expected, 2.15).

Manton.—Sevrier (1.45) and Beresfell (2.45) are regarded as good. Miss Erene (3.15) is also fancied.

Beckhampton.—Lo Zingaro (2.15) will take a lot of beating.

Ogbourne.—Celestial City (4.15) is fancied.

Weyhill.—Armagnac (4.15) should go close.

Bishops Canning.—Remorse (3.45) is worth support each way.

ENFIELD'S ADVANCE

Colt Backed to Win Over £11,000 at Yesterday's Call-Over

In an active market on the Cesarewitch at yesterday's call-over, Enfield became a decided favourite.

Opening at 1,000 to 100, this was quickly followed by 1,800 to 200, 1,000 to 120 eight times and finally 800 to 100.

Solar Boy, however, did not lengthen. After 1,000 to 90 twice had been obtained, 1,000 to 95 eight times was accepted.

Spring Morning opened at 1,000 to 80 four times, followed by 1,000 to 85 twice and a 1,000 to 90. Cotoneaster was well supported. After 1,000 to 65 four times had been laid he lengthened to 1,000 to 60 six times, closing on offer at this price.

Polly Stephens and Roi de Paris were well backed, but Hands Off showed weakness. Prices:—

CESAREWITCH
8-1 Enfield	33-1 Savonette
21-2 Solar Boy	35-1 Waterlily
100-9 Spring Morning	35-1 Whiteplains
100-6 Cotoneaster	35-1 Penny-Ling
100-6 Polly Stephens	40-1 Jack Jar
100-6 Roi de Paris	40-1 Venerly
22-1 Hands Off	40-1 Lenix
22-1 Dona Sol	45-1 Indiarubber
25-1 Negro	45-1 Mandritsara
25-1 Frixelle II	50-1 Dasty
28-1 Shining Cloud	50-1 Dejazomba
28-1 Soliman's Feast	66-1 Rising Sun
28-1 Loosestrife	66-1 Quartz
33-1 Lady Clodagh	100-1 Sans Espoir

CAMBRIDGESHIRE.—100-9 Wychwood Abbot, 100-8 May Tudor II, 20-1 Gaymans, 25-1 Statesman, 25-1 Flamenco, 28-1 Highlander, 33-1 Buckland

DAVIS LEADS LINDRUM

After being 51 points behind at the interval, Joe Davis led Walter Lindrum by 128 points at the end of the first day's play in the final of the world's billiards championship, of which Lindrum is the holder, at Melbourne yesterday.

Lindrum appeared to be careless, says Reuter, despite which and the fact that the Englishman made the top break of the afternoon with 401 unfinished, he had the lead at the interval.

Davis, however, carried his unfinished break to 477 in the evening. He looked set for a really big score, but missed a thin screw-back cannon by the narrowest of margins.

His break was the result of good all-round play, especially at the top of the table. Davis also had another fine break of 507, and a smaller one of 271.

Lindrum's best effort of the day was only 343. Closing scores: Davis, 1,902; Lindrum (in play), 1,774.

BEST FROM THE BOOK

In the Champion Stakes to-day

UMIDWAR

should be noted. PAGE BOY.

in the latter race, but they may be tempted to keep him for the Middle Park Stakes.

Beckhampton people also cherish hopes of better luck this week, but however Lawson and Darling fare, it looks pretty safe to say that Frank Butters will have materially increased his present winning account of £78,462 by the end of the week. Umidwar is naturally fully expected to make a further contribution to-day, and there is Bahram—or Hairan—to follow later in the Middle Park Stakes.

An old rival in Lo Zingaro will oppose Umidwar to-day, and over a shorter distance it is expected that he will give the Aga Khan's colt a lot more to do than he did a fortnight ago. Denbigh, who is now finding his real form, Master Vere, and Law Maker will help to make it one of the best races of the week, but I doubt that any of them will beat Umidwar.

One Who Will Stay

Arbitration, Sans Atout and Remorse are three youngsters well spoken of for the Ditch Mile Nursery, but the one they all have to beat is Voilino. This colt has been second in each of his last two races, and at least we know he will stay the distance. Poet's Pride has a good weight for a three-year-old in the Visitors' Handicap, but horses of this age are doing well at present, and I liked the way she ran on against Blackmail and Flamenco at Doncaster.

Pip Emma looks like starting favourite for the Newmarket Oaks, but it will not surprise me to see her beaten by Miss Erene. This three-year-old has had only one race this season, and Manton opinion is that Lawson's patience with a promising filly will be rewarded to-day, and perhaps again before the end of the season.

TOO-HEAVY-WEIGHTS!

The jockeys were lengths behind the boxers in their annual charity Soccer match at the West Ham Stadium yesterday.

Just how many lengths didn't matter very much, but the judge's verdict was that they lost 5-1.

But then they had a big handicap to start with. Even though they had Morton, of West Ham, to give them a leg up, the jockeys—most of them, at any rate—were a good head and neck as well removed from their rivals in stature.

Owing to the heavy ground, there were many falls—most of them, he it said, without malice, on the part of the boxers—but in the first fifteen rounds of a minute piece the boxers struck three heavy blows in the shape of goals by Eddie Peirce, Dave Crowley and Jack Hyams.

Gethin galloped away on his own to reduce the gap, but then Peirce and Crowley landed further knock-out blows for the boxers.

Rook won the Donkey Derby, and C. Smirke the challenge donkey race from S. Wragg, Bernard Carslake and Freddie Fox.

TO MISS THE CESAREWITCH

Bunkawal will not run in the Cesarewitch at Newmarket to-morrow.
