BLOODSTOCK SALES

The Newmarket bloodstock sales opened yesterday morning, when twenty-four lots were sold for 3,305 guineas.

Top price was 700 guineas for a well-grown yearling filly by Foxlaw—Spinney, the property of the Lincolnshire breeder, Mr. F. W. Dennis. The buyer was George Digby, who trains for Mr. Dennis, but he acquired the youngster on behalf of another patron.

The principal price in the horses in training was 550 guineas, paid by Colonel Lundgren for M. de St. Alary's French-bred filly Kaida.

GREAT RACE PROMISED FOR

CESAREWITCH

Whiteplains the Best Outsider

MANTON IN LUCK

By BOUVERIE

THE great flying week at nearby Mildentiall, where preparations are going on apace for the Australian flight, has helped to bring more people to Newmarket than the famous little Suffolk town has seen since the big racing boom that followed the war. House full is the country at year, held for miles around like the story at every hotel for miles around, like the good old times.

Visitors for to-day's Cesarewitch, more airminded than versed in racing, will find a topical tip in Shining Cloud. With a little imagination they might include Solar Boy and Rising Sun. Lots of imagination may be required to give the latter a ghost of a chance, but there are more solid grounds than mere coincidence for fancying the other pair, especially Shining Cloud, who is one of the few that has shown the stamina necessary for the job.

Enfield's Penalty

Rightly or wrongly, I feel that the conditions will not suit Solar Boy, and in the belief that Enfield's penalty will stop him, as it has stopped so many Newbury winners, I am looking to Spring Morning and Cotoneaster as the pair most likely to provide the winner. Polly Stephens would have been included to make it a trio if she had had a race more recently. She may still win to-day, and if she fails her turn should come before the season ends.

Between Spring Morning and Cotoneaster it is very difficult to choose. The latter is probably the most-improved mare in training, and although she has a big weight to carry the conditions bid fair to ease the burden. Spring Morning is a good stayer who has had a special preparation for the race after an easy time during the summer, and all connected with her make no secret of their confidence

The Lucky Jockey

Still the choice has to be made, and the one I am picking is Spring Morning, because luck is so often with Johnny Dines in big races. She is in the right part of the handicap, and her weight may enable her to pull out the bit extra if it comes to a tight finish on the final climb.

Roi de Paris, Hands Off and the lightly weighted northerner, Jack Tar, all have reasonably good chances on their best form, and I can assure those who fancy any of them that their ideas are shared in the respective stables. There are too many "likely long shots" for one to suggest one of them, but if I had to it would be Whitenlains.

Easton reappears in the Select Stakes, and as this mile should suit him, this ought to be one winner among the several Beckhampton runners during the afternoon. Another with an obvious chance is Caretta, although at six furlongs she may not give 14th, to Mannerism, one of the many Manton youngsters who have been held up by the hard ground.

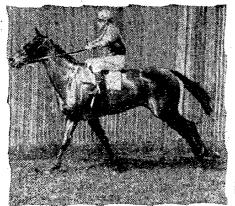

Intolly Hall, Shapett well against betriet, and the same colours, was third to Beresfell. Both should win races, and so should Ringleader, who led Sevrier for quite a long way.

After the two-year-olds it was the turn of a senior to complete a Manton treble by winning the Newmarket Oaks. The herofie here was

Umidwar Again

Umidwar duly carried on the good work for the Aga Khan and Frank Butters by winning the Champion Stakes yesterday, a clear-cut success that made us wonder once more how fortunate were Colombo and Windsor Lad in the fact that this good three-year-old found his real form all too late. Several in the field looked like "giving him a race" yesterday for a mile, but after that it was all plain sailing.

Badruddin appeared as dangerous as anything going into the dip, and it will not surprise me if after all this grey becomes the chief stable hope for the Cambridgeshire. Campanula ran a good race after being rather awkward before the start, but Lo Zingaro was never Loosestrife, which will carry top weight in to-day's Cesarewitch.

CESAREWITCH PRICES

There was again a strong market at the Victoria Club last night for the final call-over of the card on the Cesarewitch.

Enfield shortened in price to 6 to 1, and was backed to win £12,000.

Spring morning was made second favourite, being noted to win £10,000.

Polly Stephens and Dona Sol were also supported to win £10,000. Prices:—

6-1 Enfield 100-12 Spring Morning 100-8 Solar Boy 100-8 Polly Stephens 100-6 Rol de Paris 100-6 Dona Sol 20-1 Cotoneaster 23-1 Hands Off 28-1 Negro 28-1 Negro 28-1 Shining Cloud 28-1 Jack Tar 28-1 Loosestrife 33-1 Frivolite II 33-1 Soliman's Feast

33-1 Whitentains
33-1 Watertight
33-1 Penny-a-Liner
35-1 Lafty Clodagh
40-1 Savonette
40-1 Lenin
40-1 Venery
45-1 Indiarubber
50-1 Mandritsara
50-1 Dejazcomba
66-1 Dusty
66-1 Rising Sun
66-1 Quartz

in the picture. Evidently the Beckhampton colt is fired of racing, for the time being at any rate.

Manton's luck has definitely changed. Although drawn in the worst position of all in a big field. Sevrier gained a stylish victory in the Alington Stakes. Beresfell had a bit more to do in the Clearwell Stakes against Beatit, but he did enough to complete a double. A newcomer from Beckhampton, named Harmony Hall, shaped well against Sevrier, and Blue Pencil, also in the same colours, was third to Beresfell. Both should win rages and so

After the two-year-olds it was the turn of a senior to complete a Manton treble by winning the Newmarket Oaks. The heroine here was Miss Erene, and the hero Freddie Fox, who rode a fine finish to hold off Harry Wragg on Pip Emma. Miss Erene had only run once previously this season, and Lawson's patience with a promising filly might find further reward before the season is out.

Fox's Hat Trick

Number four for Manton came when Miss Onslow filly won the Ditch Mile Nursery, and so enabled Fred Fox to complete a hat trick. To prove that it never rains but that it pours in a double sense, a heavy downpour from lowering clouds blotted out most of the running, but we distinguished enough in the far away finish to see that Voilino had once again got so near and yet so far. Why do races at Newmarket still finish a quarter of a mile from the stands?

In the absence of Poet's Pride, Celestial City was favourite for the Visitors' Handicap. Fox asserted himself with little trouble to take an early lead on Gamesmaster, but a quarter of a mile from home Gordon Richards put in a strong effort on Celestial City, and the champion was always master of the situation afterwards

STABLE NEWS

Fancies from Newmarket and Chief Provincial Centres

NEWMARKET, Tuesday,

Our likely runners for the Cesarewitch have come through a preparation to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Whiteplains is a very good stayer, and will be running on at the finish.

The conditions have come to suit Hands Off, who is bound to be there at the finish.

Connections are now satisfied that all is well with Enfield, who is still nicely weighted, despite the 10ib, penalty.

Lady Clodagh ran very well in the Newbury Cup, and she is expected to do so here. However, I like nothing trained here so well as Enfield.

In her two races at Manchester and Hay-dock The Tatler ran fairly well, and he may be good enough for the Witchford Seiling Plate. Queen of Hearts, from the same stable, was a clever winner at Pontefract, and is worth notice for the Second October Nursery.

HEATHMAN. FROM OTHER QUARTERS

Manton.—Mannerism (2.30) is regarded as good. Shining Cloud (3.15) should finish in the first three. Woodhouse (4.15) is fancied.

Beekhampton.—Easton (2.0) should win.
Caretta (2.30) and Fonab (4.15) are fancied.

Ogbourne.—Wantalot (4.15) is under orders for Newmarket.

Lumbourn.—Runners from here for the Cesare-witch are Cotoneaster, Solar Boy, Spring Morn-ing and Venery. Solar Boy may prove best. Car-tolina (3.45) is fancied.
