SOLITAIRE BIG NORTHERN HOPE

Orsue Scores Under Difficulties SATYR'S SPRINT

By BOUVERIE

ALL Manchester and most of the North of England is talking of Solitaire as a good thing for the Manchester Cup to-day. On his best form there is no doubt that the Middleham horse is well handicapped, but after going very carefully through the race I have come to the conclusion that he is no better "in" than Irongrey, if indeed he is quite so well treated.

Lord Hirst's horse is one of those admirable creatures which never seem to run a bad race. He was too good for Tiberius at level weights on one occasion last year, and in the Free Handicap at the back end gave Fillip 22lb. and ran him to a short head, with Heavy Weight receiving 12lb. half a length away. To-day Fillip receives 14lb. and Heavy Weight only 4lb.

Irongrey has been out twice this season, and on each occasion narrowly beaten. Solitaire has had one race, at Nottingham, where, carrying 11b. less than Fillip, he was well behind Sir Joshua Reynolds in the Spring Handicap. Great improvement is claimed for the Middleham horse of late; indeed, such is the enthusiasm for Dines's mount that there is a distinct possibility that he will start at a false price.

Short Run—Danger

Bunker, both game and consistent, is the popular Newmarket fancy. It is against him that three-year-olds have a poor record in the race, but worth recalling that Lord Derby's colours were on the last three-year-old winner when Donnithorne was successful in 1912. Bunker, I feel sure, will give a good account of himself to-day, but the one I fear most against Irongrey and Solitaire is Short Run.

It was the original intention that Manton should be represented by Adept as well as Sir Abe Bailey's filly, but apparently a later gallop has caused the revision of those plans. On her last appearance Short Run was a comfortable winner at Newmarket over the distance of to-day's race, so that she has every qualification for the task on hand.

In addition to Irongrey, Lambourn will have several other dangerous candidates during the afternoon. One of them is Roberta, who goes for the Lodge Maiden Plate, and another Escallonia, one of the light weights in the Bury Handicap. A newcomer from the same quarter in Crayon is well spoken of for the Cotton Plate, and might be good enough to win if she can beat Ruth.

Game Orsue

No better performance has been seen at the meeting than Orsue's game display in the Mark Price Handicap yesterday. While Fogbound, the favourite, had a clear run until well into the straight, Orsue was finding all sorts of trouble. Eventually Harry Wragg brought her to the outside, and, running on with great resolution, she beat Newtown Ford comfortably by a length.

Virgin Queen colt, favourite for the Northern Stakes, met ill-luck of another sort that is rarely overcome in a five furlong race. Not only did he fail to strike off so well as several others, but he appeared to get a bump soon after the start. In any case, however, he might not have beaten the newcomer, Strapeto, who went about her job in the style of an old hand.

Lord Carnarvon chose the right race for Satyr when he decided to miss Epsom for the Beaufort Handicap. In the ring it was North v. South battle between the top weight and Lotus Eater, but the South had it in the race with the luckless Tetrapod second for the fourth time in succession. Latoi, a stable companion to Solitaire, justified his choice as the best thing of the day in the Irwell Handicap, although he had only a short head to spare over Autumn Tints.

BRANTOME COMING?

Although a definite decision will not be taken until to-day as to whether Brantome will run in the Ascot Gold Cup, it is regarded as practically certain that the horse will take his chance.

The scratches that he sustained when he broke out of his stable have completely disappeared, and yesterday's gallop proved him to be in excellent form.

HUNT CUP BETTING

10 agst Flamenco, 100-9 Dignitary, 100-8 Lawmaker, 100-8 Wychood Abbot, 100-7 Shining Tor, 100-6 Pepino, 20 Harem, 25 Badruddin, 25 Almond Hill.

Irongrey, which is expected by Bouverie to win the Manchester Cup to-day.

BEST FROM THE BOOK

An easy winner at Lingfield first time out. BACHELOR'S GOWN should be followed in the Horley Selling Plate at Gatwick to-day. PAGE BOY.

STABLE NEWS

Newmarket Horses Fancied at Manchester and Gatwick

NEWMARKET, Thursday.

There will be only a small field for the Manchester Cup.

The ground has come to suit Heavy Weight, who is handicapped up to his very best form, but I feel confident he will make a bold bid.

Bunker has not looked back since winning the Botesdale Handicap at Newmarket. He has pleased in every gallop, and I am confident whatever wins this race will have him to beat. Pharillon hardly looks good enough.

Before being unplaced in the race won by Cyrus at York, Jonker ran very consistently, and he should be noted for the Crabbet Handicap at Gatwick.

At the same meeting Major Beatty has fancied runners in Gracious Gift and Mercel. HEATHMAN.

FROM OTHER QUARTERS

Manton.—Short Run (3.10) is considered good each way at Manchester. Remorse (3.0) may finish in the first three at Gatwick.

Ogborne.—Dapple (3.0) is regarded as a good thing at Gatwick.

Beckhampton.—All Ready (4.0) and Manner (4.30) are fancied at Gatwick.

Marlborough.—Coercion (2.0) should be placed at Gatwick.

Lambourn.—Roberta (2.0), Escallonia (2.30), Irongrey (3.10), Black and Blue (4.10, each way), Crayon (4.40, each way) and Barbbery (5.10) at Manchester, and Pashley (3.0) at Gatwick are fancied.

Middleham.—Solitaire is thought good for the Manchester Cup, and Moneybox is fancied each way. Grek Abbot (4.10) and Ruth (4.40) are also fancied.

BAHRAM'S LAST SEASON

Bahram, the unbeaten Derby winner, will race no more after this season. His home next year will be the Egerton Stud at Newmarket.

Bahram's engagements for the remainder of the season include the St. Leger, the St. James's Palace Stakes at Ascot and the Eclipse Stakes at Sandown Park.

BOBSLEIGH STILL IDLE

Lord Derby's colt, Bobsleigh, who went wrong before the Derby, is likely to have to miss the Eclipse Stakes at Sandown Park on July 19.

The colt was examined yesterday by Professor Brayley Reynolds and another veterinary surgeon. As a result he is to be given a further three weeks' rest.
