WELL, Bahram is the first triple-crowned hero since Rock Sand, Fox has been robbed by a cruel fate of sharing a wonderful treble, and the Aga Khan's colt retires from racing to join the few great horses that went through their racing careers unbeaten. All that and yet it was one of the tamest St. Leger days I can remember.

* *

The absence of Hairan left the field the smallest since the war, and even though there were eight runners some bookmakers betted 1--2. "Take 3 to 1," was Bahram's price to win for a long time, which means that the majority of the big crowd backed something else each way or left betting alone. Never have I seen Tattersall's so sedate before a big race, and the preliminaries in the paddock and in the parade left the feeling that it was all merely a preliminary to a Bahram canter. And this is exactly what it all proved to be ¥ Sedately they went to the post. Sedately they Sedately they went to the post. Sedately they lined up—that is, except for Plassy's one dash at the tapes—and sedately they went off to provide only the semblance of two thrills. The first came when Field Trial drew up and passed his pace-making stable companion at the entrance to the straight. The second was when Solar 'Ray loomed large as Field Trial faltered. Both died almost as soon as they were born. Bahram drew out half-way up the straight with an electrifying burst and it was all over. it was all over.

Second on Merit

Richards, like the majority of us, chose the wrong one, if choose he did, in picking Fair-bairn instead of Buckleigh, as the danger to the favourite. Solar Ray earned second place strictly on merit, and not only Buckleigh, but Plassy as well finished in front of Fairbairn. Apparently Lt.-Col. Loder's horse had been much flattered as a stayer in the slow-run race with Robin Goodfellow at York.

* * * After the race people who delight in "placing" horses on merit were soon hard at it comparing Bahram with the giants of the past. Many, I found, still doubted him as a really great horse because they allege he struck an otherwise lean period. The answer-to that is that he has accomplished more than any other horse in the last thirty-one years, and that his name will go down in history with Ormonde and the few other turf giants that never knew defeat. * ×

Leger Day's Success

Racing is full of topical tips and coincidence winners, but surely there has never been a better variety than Leger Day on Leger Day. The crowd apparently thought it much too good to miss and there was almost a Leger cheer when Lady Derby's filly, in Lord Derby's colours, won very easily after being in front nearly all the way. Technocracy was always second best, and should be moving up when the stable luck changes.

* A deceptive angle led to considerable dis-cussion after Sky Pioneer had won the Milton Plate. Many thought that Bidou had finished

Mrs. C. W. S. Whitburn, who is expected to win the Princess Mary Stakes to-day with Dent de Llon, placed Monk Vendor second and Flying Spear II third. E. Smith rode a nice race on the winner. We require a few more like this improving young rider for the light-weight ranks. * * *

Following Bahram's success we saw Gordon Richards in the limelight. He had to ride hard on Joyous filly in the Bradgate Park Nursery to shake off Perryman's effort on Diosma, and when winning the Tattersall Sale Stakes on Golden Martlet he finished half a length to the good. Baber Shah, carrying the Bahram colours, was backed as if there was no such thing as settling day, but he failed to finish in the first three.

Smart Sprinters

Several handicaps with a big bearing on the future will be decided to-day. One of them, the Portland Handicap, may disclose a likely Cambridgeshire horse in Finalist. This three-year-old may not be speedy enough to hold some of the fastest horses in training, but he is very useful.

Shalfieet, Rosemary's Pet, Valkyrie, Cora Deans and Sunny Palm are all real speed mer-chants, and I hope to see the last-named atone for her Stewards' Cup disappointment. The Weyhill filly showed more speed than anything else in the early stages of the Goodwood race, and if her turn does not come to-day it should do so before the season is out. ×

* * * The Princess Mary Nursery is invariably won by a top-weight, and I think either Dent de Lion or Wheatfield will carry on the good work to-day. The penalised Miss Jinks II is not without a chance, but Dent de Lion is of better class, and she should win from Wheat-field. Trio, running over his best distance, should not be far away in the Wharncliffe Han-dicap, but it is a very tricky race.
