

HARRY WILLS' QUICK VICTORY OVER TUT JACKSON

Dempsey's Challenger Knocks Out Giant Negro Opponent in Three Rounds.

DUNCAN AND MITCHELL IN AMERICA.

Harry Wills, Jack Dempsey's negro challenger for the world's title, has added another laurel to his crown by knocking out Tut Jackson, the negro giant of Ohio. The fight took place at Ebbetsfield on Tuesday night, and Wills won in the third round after administering severe punishment to his rival.

Wills the Master.—Wills was easily the master all through, states a Reuter New York message. He floored Jackson for a count of eight in the first round, and staggered him with lefts and rights to the head in the second. There was considerable clinching in the third round. Then Jackson went to the floor from a right to the stomach. He rose, but another right on the kidneys sent him to the canvas for the full count. Wills was unscathed.

That Dempsey Fight.—This brings Wills even more into the limelight as a challenger of Dempsey, but that it brings a match between the pair any nearer is extremely doubtful. Public opinion in America, as well as on this side, will run strongly against a white and a black being matched for the heavy-weight championship of the world. When Jack Johnson was champion they had a lot of trouble in the States over the racial question, and in all probability financial considerations will not be allowed to outweigh public policy.

Spurs to Play for Hospitals.—The Spurs have arranged to send a team to play Wood Green and District League at Broomfield Park, Palmers Green, on Saturday, September 16. The occasion is a fête organised by the Southgate Allotments Federation on behalf of the Royal Northern and Passmore Edwards Hospitals.

Tilden and Richards Win.—At Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts, on Tuesday, W. T. Tilden and Vincent Richards, national doubles champions, successfully defended the title against the Australian, O'Hara Wood and Patterson, the score being 4-6, 6-1, 6-3, 6-4. This result is regarded as significant, inasmuch as Tilden and Richards are the mainstays of the United States Davis Cup team.

DEATH OF "A. C. B."

"A. C. B." Passes Away.—Mr. Alfred C. Burnett, most lovable of men, died yesterday afternoon at West Norwood Cottage Hospital. Since the commencement of the Sunday Pictorial, Mr. Burnett was on the sporting staff of that journal, and for the last forty years has interested, amused and instructed readers of The Daily Mirror by his breezy common-sense articles and notes, particularly on boxing, rowing and athletic matters.

Mr. A. C. Burnett.

enabled him to cover. At home alike reporting or sub-editing, he was for many, many years a familiar figure on racecourses, cricket and football grounds, athletic meetings, prize fights in the open and boxing dens when the pastime was conducted behind locked and guarded doors.

His Work.—His association with the Sportsman in all lasted for thirty years at least, and at one time he was sporting editor of the now defunct Sun, under the editorship of Horatio Bottomley. Since Mr. Burnett came to Bouverie-street he had made himself one of the best-liked and most respected men on the staff of The Daily Mirror.

Our Loss.—"Alf" never found work too hard, and his cheeriness in the most trying time was infectious. He had a fund of reminiscence and stories of old-time sport and sportsmen, and the ability to use them apropos of present happenings. To me personally it snaps a life-long friendship. "Alf" joined the Sportsman staff to work under my father, and it is forty years since I first met him. Mr. Burnett leaves a widow, two sons and three daughters to mourn the loss of one who, in addition to being husband and father, was a pal to them as he was to all of us. P. J. MOSS.

DUNCAN'S BIG CHEQUE.

British Golfers in U.S.—George Duncan and Abe Mitchell are again enjoying a very successful golfing tour in America. Little news has been received concerning their doings, but up to three weeks ago they had played twenty matches, of which they had won sixteen. That is a very good percentage, considering that all the courses they play over are strange. Indeed, it often happens that they have not time to play a practice round before taking part in the match.

Duncan's Putting.—Needless to say, Duncan was disappointed that he did not get nearer to winning the American championship. In a recent letter he states that, although his play through the green was satisfactory, he did not strike his best putting. And the Skokie course is largely a test of putting. Practically every hole can be reached with a drive and a pitch, so that the supreme shot in the game—the one with a wooden club through the green—is not demanded.

Small Champion.—Duncan says that Geno Sarazen reminds him of the late Tom Ball. The young Italian, who has already made up his mind to come over next year to compete for the British championship, only weighs about 9st, and stands no more than 5ft. 5in. In winning the championship of the New York Western Golf Association, Duncan secured a record prize for a British player. His cheque was for 1,500 dollars, which at the present rate of exchange is equivalent to about £400.

Villa's Discovery.—What a wonderful knack Aston Villa have of discovering clever young footballers. Tom Mort, the new back, was playing in the Cheshire League with Altrincham little more than a year ago, and to-day he is taking part in the highest class of football with a club who are satisfied only with the best. The Villa secured Mort from Rochdale. They had to pay a good price for him, but it is already obvious that they have secured a good bargain.

Birmingham Lucky for Once!—A good centre forward is a priceless person in these days, and Birmingham are undoubtedly lucky to have discovered Joseph Bradford. The curious thing is that both the Villa and Derby County had the chance of signing him on, but during his trials they did not "find" his talents as did Frank Richards, the Birmingham secretary. Bradford, who is twenty-one years of age, was born at Pegg's Green, near Coalville, and when only twelve he was playing in the Coalville League with colleagues twenty-five years old.

Thompson's Chance to Make Good.—There is no doubt that Andrew Thompson will be given every chance to make good at inside left in the Spurs team. Against Cardiff City he was so nervous that he failed to do himself justice, but that he is a very capable forward there is no question. He is only twenty-two years of age, and he has been at Tottenham less than two years. Peter McWilliam discovered him in the Newcastle district, which is a recruiting ground he never overlooks.

OTHER SPORT IN BRIEF.

News Items and Gossip About Men and Matters of the Moment.

St. Leger Scratchings.—Psychology was scratched from the St. Leger at 1.20 p.m., Tuesday, and Radiant River at 9 a.m. yesterday.

Bloomfield to Meet McTigue?—Dave Larhelt, Jack Bloomfield's barber, states that he is willing to match his man against Mike McTigue, the American middle-weight.

Orient Captain Injured.—Osmond, the Clapton Orient right back and captain, injured his knee so badly at Blackpool that it is feared he will not be able to play for several weeks.

Tie at Westward Ho!—The Hon. Michael Scott and his brother, the Hon. Denis, Secl, tied for the Hope Grant Golf Medal on the Royal North Devon Club's course at Westward Ho! yesterday with a scratch score of 82.

Golf Record at Pollards Hill.—C. Johns, professional to the Purley Downs Golf Club, has broken the record of the Pollards Hill course with a score of 66. The old record stood to the credit of Fred Cox, the local professional, at 68.

Winter Lawn Tennis.—A building with accommodation for fifteen lawn tennis and four badminton courts has been secured by the Winter Lawn Tennis Club. The secretary, E. Rupert-street, W. 1, will send particulars to any inquirer.

To-night at the Ring.—A good programme has been arranged for the Ring this evening. The chief bout is one of twenty rounds between the winners of the Ring feather-weight belts, Jimmy Corp (St. George's) and Fred Bullions (Deptford), who have signed to box for side stakes of £100 at 9st., give or take 1lb.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE.
 By Our City Editor.
 THE CITY, Wednesday.
 Markets were inclined to ease off again to-day on international politics and some forced selling. Gilt-edged stocks remained dull, 5 per cent. War Loan being 99 1/2 and Conversion 7 1/2. Home Rails moved narrowly, but Brighton A were good 6 1/2, also Dover A 3 1/2.
 In Industrials, textiles suffered profit-taking, except Bradford Dyers 4 1/2. Steel, engineering and motor shares were all dull. Rubbers moved adversely. Oils were less firm, although Bazile were maintained over 2 1/2-1 1/2.
 Greek loans were a point down on the political developments.

After your Holidays
 When you go home after your holidays, how will you feel? Fine! Energetic and cheerful, in the full swing of health!
 And three months later—how will you feel then?
 You know quite well that much of the energy and cheerfulness will have gone; the good effect of the fresh air and exercise will already have worn off. Back at work again, in home, office, factory or shop, the sedentary life, lack of open air and exercise, worry, anxieties and stress of modern life soon produce the old feeling of depression. Liver and kidneys become sluggish. Failing to perform their eliminating functions actively enough, they let impurities creep into the blood and clog the system. Instead of enjoying the full vigour of health, you become out of condition, get easily tired, suffer headaches, constipation and a hundred other
