

THANET CONSTITUENTS VISIT THEIR M.P. IN THE— EASTBOURNE'S

Sir John Bradbury, whose reported resignation as British delegate to the Reparations Commission has been denied by the Treasury.

Freddie Hann, son of a Fulham woman, hid under the bed when it is alleged, his mother killed his little sister.

Mr. A. J. Bowen speaking at the launch of the cilla Macbean. The Bishop of Lewes presided, which is one of the very latest models.

The Hon. Esmond Harmsworth (also inset) addressing his guests in the grounds of Hemsted Park, Benenden, Kent.

Mrs. Esmond Harmsworth presenting the cup to the tug-o'-war team.

A party of his constituents paid a visit yesterday to the Hon. Esmond Harmsworth. During the afternoon a cup gained by a tug-o'-war team formed by members of the house staff was presented to the winners.—(Daily Mirror photographs.)

WELL CLEARED.—Mr. C. A. Brown's Old Sport clears the gate gallantly at Henley and District Agricultural Show.

Marquis de Soveral, formerly Portuguese Minister in London, who has been lying ill for some months in Paris, is reported to be sinking. His condition causes the gravest anxiety.

SWEARING IN NEW SHERIFFS.—Mr. J. E. K. Studd (right) and Mr. F. H. M. Killick, the new Sheriffs of the City of London, being sworn in to office at the Guildhall yesterday.

LADY JUROR'S EASY WIN.—The finish of the Jockey Club Stakes at Newmarket yesterday, won easily by Lady Juror (Lane up).

WESTMINSTER CATHEDRAL EXHIBITION.—Father Gagnon with Chong Keng and his daughter Susan, both converts, outside a model native hut at the Catholic Missionary Exhibition, opened yesterday at Westminster Cathedral.

EXCISEMAN'S WALTER F. REY DEAL YESTERDAY VICE MEDAL IN FORTY-FIVE YEARS CUSTOMS