

LEIGHTON AGAIN WITH THE ALSO RAN

Undefeated Verdict Scores at 100 to 8.

TREVISO'S VICTORY.

Selections for Haydock Park and Bath To-Day.

Runners were again numerous at Nottingham yesterday, and the one-day fixture at Folkestone brought the sea coast meetings for the season to a close. Three Cambridgeshire candidates in Leighton, Roman Fiddle and Rock Fire were seen out at Nottingham. Features of the day were:—

Racing.—Leighton again failed badly at Nottingham, where the unbeaten Verdict scored at 100 to 8 with Donoghue in the saddle.

Golf.—The Professional Golfers' Association's match play tournament for £750 began at Sunningdale, the thirty-two matches in the first round being decided.

LEIGHTON—AS USUAL.

Unplaced Behind Rock Fire at Nottingham—Verdict's Fine Win.

The strange mixture of fickleness and consistency which characterises racing flog never had a better illustration than Nottingham provided yesterday.

Unbeaten in her three previous races, and with Donoghue in the saddle into the bargain, Verdict was allowed to start at 100 to 8 in the Sherwood Forest Nursery. Leighton—without a victory in nine attempts this season—was made favourite for the Trial Plate.

One won, the other lost; and, as you might suppose, it was Leighton who again figured among the also rans. Will the public ever tire of this "horse of a century"?

The fact that he had run Leighton Tor to a neck at Doncaster evidently convinced the faithful that Mr. Whineray's colt had at last mended his ways. So they made him a 5 to 4 favourite—and saw him beaten "out of sight" by Rock Fire, Blue Cloud and Roman Fiddle.

In the Nursery several new loves were found to depose Verdict—chiefly, of course, because she was carrying a 12lb. penalty. Wasp and Valni carried nearly all the "big" money, and both failed to hold Lord Coventry's brilliant filly, who was followed home by another 100 to 8 chance in Roger de Bushi.

COTTAGE BEATEN.

Thoughtless turned up unexpectedly for the Bentinck Welter, and in giving Cottage 18lb. and a neck beating, made the latter's chance for the Cesarewitch distinctly weaker than it appeared on the Doncaster form with Silvester.

Treviso found the company just to his liking in the Welbeck Handicap, and probably had a little more in hand than the neck verdict suggests. Tobermory was another good favourite to score, but most of the other results were distinctly to the liking of the bookmakers.

Dominican, trained by young Felix Leach and ridden by his diminutive brother, started what was hoped would be a "family day" at Folkestone by winning the Selling Nursery, but the subsequent happenings were not nearly so satisfactory.

Casse Noisette, in the same colours, was beaten out of a place in the Leas Nursery, and Bobanob met with a similar fate in the Cliff Plate—won by the ex-hurdler Zarane.

HAYDOCK AND BATH.

Bright hopes of a royal victory are held out at Haydock to-day, when Will Somers, with Wragg, his favourite jockey, in the saddle, takes his chance in the October Handicap. Much bigger game is in view for Steyn and Evander, and chief danger to the King's colt may come from the consistent Blagueur.

Page Three, running over his best distance, is well fancied for the Lewton Welter, and it is heard that great hopes are entertained that Scaldino will complete a double for Lord Dundas in the Newton Nursery.

As East Tor missed his engagement at Nottingham, we must follow him in the Autumn Handicap at Bath. This is a very useful colt when the weight permits of a strong jockey riding, as it does to-day. Nightshift, probably the mount of Donoghue, will run well.

Badnabay, who finished close up third to Dane's Voe at Alexandra Park, is to endeavour to wipe out that defeat in the Longbridge Nursery. I fancy he will do so. BOUVIERIE.

TRAINING BIG BOXERS.

How Moran, Bloomfield and Jones Are Getting Fit for Albert Hall.

Three big boxers are training in the Thames Valley for forthcoming important matches on October 12 at the Albert Hall. They are Frank Moran, installed at Maidenhead; Jack Bloomfield, at Taplow, and Soldier Jones at Longford. They have with them a crowd of sparring partners and the other accessories of a fighter's life.

In Moran's camp, for instance, there are big Frank Goddard, Harry Drake, Mike McTigue, the well-known American middle-weight, and Bartley Madson, an Irish-American with a good record in the States.

Moran, who boxed with McTigue, Drake and Goddard, seems in very good trim, and the round in which he and Goddard wound up the work was a hard-hitting affair, which showed Goddard a better boxer than most people had given him credit for being. Beckett will have to be at his very best to beat the big Pittsburg, who is as cheery and confident as ever.

A mile or so back on the road Bloomfield is training for his fight with Bombardier Wells. When I saw him yesterday he did some wonderful physical exercises which showed him to be very fit, and he boxed a round each with his brother Jack. Sid Turner, lately returned from America, Guardsman West and Harold Rolph.

Soldier Jones will, after all, not oppose Albert Lloyd. The latter's defeat by Ted Moore, of Plymouth, has put him out of court, and Arthur Towndley, of Birkenhead, will take his place on the big night.

Soldier Jones' hand, which he damaged in his fight with Cook, has mended, and he boxed eight hard rounds yesterday, four with Rocky Knight, two with Albert Broadbribb, and two with Antonio McCormack, a French Canadian. He also did a lot of fast work on the floor and other gymnasium stunts.

If the opponents of these three men are as forward there is every promise of a great night on Thursday week. P. J. M.

AMATEUR CHALLENGES SIKI.

American Olympic Boxer Wants to Meet Carpentier's Conqueror.

Eddie Egan, a former Yale athlete and Olympic light-heavy-weight boxer, who is now in Paris on his way to England to take up a Rhodes Scholarship at Oxford, and who witnessed the Siki-Carpentier fight, has challenged Siki to a match "any time and anywhere," says Reuter.

Egan states he would give his share of the purse to charity in order to preserve his amateur status.

Siki in Holland.—Siki arrived at Rotterdam yesterday morning, says Central News, and he will give an exhibition of boxing on Friday evening.

EASY VICTORIES AT HENDON.

Fyzee, Norton and Ritchie Successful at the London Country Club.

Dr. A. H. Fyzee, B. I. C. Norton and M. J. G. Ritchie all had easy victories at the London Country Club lawn tennis tournament at Hendon yesterday.

Fyzee beat J. Legg 6-1, 6-1. Norton defeated E. C. Serrin 6-0, 6-3, and Ritchie beat A. G. Sadiq 6-0, 6-0. Later in the day Ritchie scored another easy victory, defeating E. Higgs 6-1, 6-1.

BIG SWIM IN BOLTON.

International Competition for To-night's 100 Yards English Championship.

For the first time in the swimming history of Bolton a national championship is to be decided in the town this evening, when the 100 yards championship of England under A.S.A. laws is to be contested.

There is a real international flavour, as the competitors include the champions of Belgium, Sweden, Scotland, also the North, South, Midlands and North-East of England.

C. K. Baillie, the young Scot, who was second last year at Cleethorpes, is credited with the ability to do 57s., but though such a performance ought to ensure him coming near victory, it is doubtful if he will prevent the Belgian, M. Van Schelle, of Brussels, repeating his win of 1921. J. Callens (Belgium) and the Swede, O. Trolle, must also enter into consideration.

TED RAY BEATEN.

Early Surprise in the £750 Golf Tournament.

BOOMER'S STIFF MATCH.

For the first time in my experience the professional golfer yesterday made the Sunningdale course appear easy. Several players reached the turn in 34. In their match George Gadd and James Sherlock had scores of 70, and Aubrey Boomer, the young French champion, and A. J. Miles, of Merton Park, each went round in 71.

Edward Ray must despair of winning this event, which counts as the match-play championship. He has been in the final three times and the semi-final twice, but he has always missed the prize.

Yesterday he was knocked out on the first round by G. R. Buckle, of Edgbaston, Birmingham, and he played so badly that he frankly admitted that he deserved to be beaten. He lost three out of the first five holes, but making a typical recovery he squared the match at the tenth.

Ray made a wonderful shot out of a bunker at the twelfth. The ball was lying close in the sand, and a couple of yards from the face of the bunker, but, taking a light iron, he played a mighty shot, and the ball reached to the foot of the green. He could not, however, snatch a half, and he became two down at the fifteenth, where he completely missed his iron shot from the tee.

UNACCEPTED CHANGE.

Buckle gave him a chance to pull the match out of the fire. At the last hole, however, Ray, instead of taking his niblick, chose the light mashie, and half lopping the shot thumped the ball fifty yards over the green.

The best two matches of the day were those between Boomer and Miles and Gadd and Sherlock, both of which entailed the playing of extra holes. Three up at the fourth, Boomer seemed to be winning comfortably. Then Miles began to play superbly, and to the fifteenth had an average of five under four, including two's at the eighth and fifteenth.

During this patch of brilliant golf, Miles won the eighth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth and fifteenth, and was two up with three to play. Then he proceeded to fling the match away by taking three putts at the sixteenth and seventeenth, Boomer missed a 18in. putt to settle matters at the nineteenth, but he made amends at the twenty-first by obtaining a three.

Gadd was up most of the way despite the fact that on the round Sherlock had as many as seven threes. The latter, however, made a superb finish, playing the last three holes, all of which measure about 400 yards, in 4, 3, 4.

Fred Leach, who has done so much in golf without winning a big tournament, expelled one of the leading young players in A. G. Havers. F. M. C.

HALF A CHAMPION.

Mitchell's "Non-Decisive Play-Off" in U.S. Golf Tournament.

The president of the Southern Golf Association of the United States announces that the Association's championship was not involved in the play-off tie on Sunday wherein Abe Mitchell (North Foreland) beat Leo Diegel (Lochmoor, Detroit, Michigan).

He asserts that the playing off of the tie was a matter of private arrangement, and therefore non-decisive.

WOMEN'S GOLF TITLE.

Big Entry for Championship at Hunstanton Next Week.

Eighty-three entries have been received for the English women's close golf championship, which commences at Hunstanton on October 9, among those who have entered being Miss Joyce Wethered, the British woman champion; Mrs. W. A. Gavin, the Canadian champion; Miss Muriel Wickenden, the girl champion; and Miss Gladys Bastin, the French champion.

Billiards Championship.—The secretary of the Billiards Association and Control Club contradicts the report that the venue of the professional championship has already been arranged. A meeting has been called for October 16 to consider suggestions of players concerned.

The Happy Wife

Who is the happy wife?

She who keeps her youth, her good looks, her husband's adoration—she is the Happy Wife.

And it's all a matter of health!

While she can retain this she will never really know what it is to grow old. Her cheeks will retain their tender bloom, her eyes their merry sparkle, her form its youthful grace, her mind its happy outlook. Every turn of fortune she will meet with a smile, confident of herself, sure of her husband's love, radiant with the beauty and good spirits that only health can give.

What more could a woman desire? Only the recipe!

The first essential of youthful, vigorous health is a clear blood stream and everyone can keep the blood stream clear by adopting the Kruschen habit—that is, by taking a tiny pinch of the magic Kruschen crystals in the breakfast cup of tea.

The perils of constipation—one of the principal causes of faded beauty and premature old age—are serious enough. Your doctor will tell you that rheumatism, neuritis and kindred troubles are caused by the absorption of poisonous products from the internal organs; the toxins, or poisons, instead of being eliminated, are absorbed into the blood stream, robbing the eye of its brightness, the complexion of its colour and freshness, the mind and body of their energy.

But Kruschen not only drives out the poisons and keeps the blood stream clear. While stimulating the liver and kidneys to a proper performance of their duty, it tones up and invigorates the whole system, which knows nothing of the lowering effects common to most purgatives. That is one of the reasons why women who take Kruschen always look so happy.

Try it yourself and watch the results. Begin the healthy Kruschen habit now and you'll feel many years younger before you're many days older.

Kruschen Salts

Good Health for a Farthing a Day

A 1/2 bottle of Kruschen Salts contains 96 doses—enough for three months—which means good health for less than a farthing a day. The dose prescribed for daily use is "as much as will lie on a sixpence," taken in the breakfast cup of tea.

Tasteless in Tea

Every chemist sells Kruschen. Get a bottle to-day and start to-morrow.
