ANOTHER DEFEAT FOR UGLY DUCKLING

Stuff Gown's Mishap in County Nursery.

V. SMYTH IN FORM.

Dancer Fails at Newcastle-Cambridgeshire Gulops.

There was nothing of outstanding importance in the racing at Gatwick and Newcastle yesterday. Four favourites were successful at Gatwick, and Victor Smyth rode two of them. At Newcastle two favourites won, both being ridden by R. Jones. Chief features of the day were:-

Racing.—Ugly Duckling met with another defeat at Gatwick, where Pictura easily beat him in the Monteflore Plate.

Football.—At Glasgow the Scottish League beat the Irish League by 3 goals to 0.

Lawn Tennis .- M. J. G. Ritchic and A. H. Fyze qualified for the final of the covered courts championships at Queen's Club.

POISONED ARROWS ADVANCE

Condover Soon Loses His Place as Cambridgeshire Favourite.

Another new Cambridgeshire favourite was found yesterday, when Poisoned Arrow was backed down to 10 to 1, and Stratford joined Condover on the 100 to 9 mark.

Naturally there was a slight "easing" among the others, but no liberties were taken with Lady Juror, and the question which is Taylor's best is not likely to be answered until the race has been decided.

Express Delivery joined Condover in a nine furlongs gallop at Newmarket yesterday, and for a horse knocked out to 40 to 1 went very well. It was by no means a too-speed spin, however.

Another interesting figure in the Heath yesterday was Monarch, who had Palomides for a companion in a gallop over the Cambridgeshire.

Gilpin's pair, St. Louis and Roman Bachelor, again galloped together, but this time Archibald was on the five-year-old and the distance was restricted to seven furlongs.

UGLY DUCKLING SECOND.

UGLY DUCKLING SECOND.

Racing at Gatwick yesterday was always interesting, especially as Ugly Duckling graced the proceedings by opposing Pictura in the Montefiore Stakes. Of course, he was well backed again, and he did hetter than usual in getting second. V. Smyth, who rode Pictura, also scored easily on Wonder.

Ingliam had the bad luck to lose the Mole Plate on an objection to Tobermory for bumping and boring, and Smirke, another Epsom apprentice, was desperately unfortunate on Stuff Gown in the County Nursery.

With only fifty yards to go the 20 to 1 chance appeared a certain winner when she collided with the rails and Benjamin Cherry got up to gain a lucky victory by half a length.

King Sol put up a fine performance in the Charlwood Handicap, in which he led from end to end with 9st 9lb. on his back. Lord Penzance half whipped round at the start R. Jones rode a couple of successful favourites at Newcastle, but the bookma'ver came out best in the Northumberland Autumn Handicap, and as Baydon, Phantom, Cymrie and Abbot of Jervaultx also failed, Peacock had the unusual experience of a blank day at one of his favourite meetings.

DONCASTER PROSPECTS.

Huge entries, as usual, have been received for the last meeting of the season at Doncaster; whether the fields will be in proportion is another matter.

another matter.

Cos, I hear, is unlikely to be sent for the Antumn Foal Plate, and in that case My Lord should add to his success at Newmarket, where he gave a convincing display against Tranquil and combany.

My Newmarket correspondent has a big regard for, Kilmoon's chance in the Stanley Nursery, but I doubt if that youngster will beat Miss Whi'e, who will again have Donoghue in the saddle.

Another youngster from Beckhampton—Miss Marget—is still nicely "in" the Falmouth Nursery, in spite of a 7lb, penalty, but she may not quite give 15lb, to Nicotine colt.

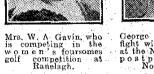

In spite of bus big weight, Linby will take a lot of catching if he gets off in the Harewood Handicap. He did so at Newmerket, however, and I hope to see Donoghue again helping him to-day,

WOMEN'S GREAT GOLF.

Interesting Matches in the Foursomes Tournament at Ranelagh.

A feature of the women's foursomes tournament at Ranelagh yesterday was the great recovery of Miss Gourlay (Camberley Heath) and Mrs. Durlacher (Stoke Poges). In the third round they were conceding four strokes to Miss Dransfeld and Mrs. Farquharson, and found themselves 3 down with 4 to play and one stroke still to come.

Playing a great game, however, they won the last four holes in par golf. At the eighteenth Miss Gourlay hit her drive past the pin, a distance of 256 yards from the tee.

Mrs. Gayin, probably the most travelled woman golfer in the world, and Miss Joy Winn (Aldeburgh) played splendidly to win both their matches.

Some of the best golf of the day was played by Miss Fowler (Burnham) and Miss Rogers (Burnham). To-day they will be in receipt of two strokes from Miss Gourlay and Mrs. Durlacher, and this may produce the best struggle of the tournament.

ESSEX PROFESSIONALS BATTLE

Seymour Leading in County Championship Tournament at Romford.

In the first half of the Essex professional golf championship at Romford yesterday the lead was held by A. Seymour (West Essex) with a total of 147 for thirty-six holes. In his first round of 75 he was home in 35, and in the afternoon he was out in a similar score for a return of 72.

The leaders at the end of the day were: A. Seymour (West Essex), 147; Claude Gray (Clacton), holder. 154; A. S. Tingey, iun. (Frinton). 161; James Puxton (Romford), 161; A. Smith (Wanstead), 162; B. C. Parmenter (Colchester), 163; Bert Batley (Thorpe Hall), 163.

BIRTHDAY VICTORY.

M. J. G. Ritchie and A. H. Fyzee in Men's Singles Final at Queen's Club.

M. J. G. Ritchie celebrated his fifty-second birthday at Queen's Club yesterday by defeating D. M. Greig 7-5, 6-0, 4-6, 6-4 in the semi-finals of the mon's singles. His opponent in the final will be A. H. Fyzee, who defeated W. C. Crawley after a terrific battle 4-6, 6-4, 5-1, 3-6, 6-1.

Miss McKane, holder of the women's singles championship, entered the final by disposing of Mrs. Edgington with the loss of only a single game. In the mixed doubles a surprising defeat was that of F. G. Lowe and Mrs. Lambert Chambers by Colonel Berger and Miss Harvey. The former pair won the first set 2-6, but the others recovered and won the next two sets 6-0, 6-2.

SCOTLAND'S VICTORY

Irish Side Outclassed in Inter-League Game at G'asgow.

Nearly 10,000 people saw Scotland beat Ireland in the fater-League match at Glasgow yesterday by three goals to nothing. It was a game in which the losers were hopelessly striving all the time against an opposition which completely outclassed them. At the opening it looked as if Ireland might make a fight of it, for McKenzie, on the right, and Falcon, on the other wing, were very lively, and the former was extremely unlucky with a fast drive which struck the upright.

After this, however, Ireland were concerned solely in keeping their goal intact. Harland saved well on oegasions, but T. Ferguson at length beat him, and Scotland crossed over with a lead of a goal to nothing.

Whon the second half had been in progress about fifteen minutes Ferrier got Scotland's second point, and after this the Scotsmen played splondid football, though not making very great efforts to score. Twenty minutes from time, however, Ferguson got through very clevely to beat Harland for the third goal.

Harland, in roal, Little, at back, and Morgan, at centre half be a played a great part in keeping the clever Sc. tish forwards partially in check,

INTERNATIONAL CHANGES.

England's Best Outside Right Unable to Play-Palace Hold McCracken.

Owing to an injury Jack Carr, undoubtedly the most clover outside right in the country, will be unable to take his place in England's team against Ireland on Saturday.

Middlesbrough have notified the F.A. that Carr is still suffering from a strained tendon sustained in the inter-League match, so Mercer, of Sheffield United, has been chosen for the vacancy.

Crystal Palace, who are to play Bury on Saturday, have declined to release McCracken to assist Ireland in the match.

Burnley have also refused to release Emerson for the Irish team.

It was announced from Belfast last night that Morgan, of Linneld, will play at left half. Efforts are, being made to secure Irvine, of Dundee, to fill the other vocancy.

SUCCESS AT LAST.

Crystal Palace Manage to Defeat an Athenian League Team.

Crystal Palace gained their first victory of the season in any competition at Solhurst yesterday, when they beat Bromley in a London Challenge Cup match by 2 to 0.

They found the Athenian League side a keen and capable one that at times applied severe pressure to the Palace goal. Conner scored in the first half and Johnson in the second.

During a period of attack hy Bromley, Alderson was given a lot of trouble by Morris and Thomas, the latter putting in a great shot that was brilliantly saved.

AMATEUR SOCCER.

Bedfordshire Beat Berks and Bucks in County Championship.

Berks and Bucks were cleverly beaten in the Southern Counties amateur championship yesterday by Bedfordshire by 4 goals to 1.

Giles, Taylor (twice) and Hobkirk scored for the winners, while Berks and Bucks scored through Feach, the Beds goalkeeper, throwing the ball on to Norris, from whom it rebounded into the net.

The Army beat Sandhurst by 3 goals to 1, but were lucky to do so, great goalkeeping only saving them. McTayish (2) and Lacey scored for the Army and Beal registered the college goal.

Take Corns off? That's easy. But to take 'em out?? Oh! That's different.

'Unless you use saltrated water, which does the trick every time, and also cures bunions, aching tenderness, chilblains or even rheumatic and gouty pains''—says

C. S. TURNER, formerly of the R.A.M.C.

Cutting the top of a corn off with a razor or burning it off with caustic lotions, plasters, etc., doesn't do any good. The root just sprouts right up again, and soon your corn has a brand new top on it, bigger than ever. The top is only dead skin anyway. The business end of a corn is the little pointed part, or core that extends down into the top. That or core, that extends down into the toe. That is what hurts when it presses on sensitive nerves, and it is the part you have to get out. Cutting the top off an aching tooth wouldn't stop the ache. Same way with a corn. Don't work a shout the tor Cut the corn. worry about the top Get the root out permanently by using a good big handful of the refued Reudel Bath Saltrates (you can get a half-pound at slight cost from any chemist) dissolved in a gallon or so of hot water. Just soak your feet in this for fifteen or twenty minutes, then take hold of the corn with your fingers and out she'll come, root and all, like the hull comes out of a strawberry. Only a little hole or depression is left in the toe, and that soon closes, so there is nothing left in there to sprout a new corn again. It doesn't affect the surrounding flesh at all, but soon softens the whole of the corn. No burning or soreness, no pain, no danger, no trouble or soreness, no pain, no danger, no trouble and no days of waiting to see whether that old corn is going to leave for good or come back to stay with you a while longer. Soften callouses the same way, then scrape off, and I don't dare tell you how quick this medicated water will always drive aches, chafes, blisters, etc., away, and even cure rheumatic or gouty pains. It would sound too good to be true. but thousands of former soldiers can tell what wonderful stuff saltrated water is. C. S. T.
