Derby for M. Peacock

Ridden by J. Taylor and starting at 100 to 8, Owenstown won the Ulster Derby on Saturday by a short head from the home-trained Strong Current. The winner is trained by M. Peacock, and Boyd-Rochfort's Barking Fox was third. Lazybones, carrying Lord Derby's colours, started favourite at 7 to 4.

Smirke Retained

C. Smirke has again been retained to ride for the Aga Khan next season. His winter dream will now be of Mirza II emulating Windsor Lad and Mahmoud in the Derby.

SANDOWN'S BIG DOUBLE

By BOUVERIE

"GIVE me luck before form or information," I heard a man remark as he went to draw his winnings on Portmarnock at Sandown on Saturday. He was right. You can't beat

Nothing went right for Captain Boyd-Roch-

Nothing went right for Captain Boyd-Roch-fort and his jockey Pat season. Now nothing is going wrong. Victories in two of the richest races of the season in succes-sive days have surely wiped out those dis-appointments with disappointing performance.

Magnet's Cup

That other rich prize the Anniversary Cup was won equally comfortably by Magnet, whose success recalled his fine effort against William of Valence in the Rosebery Sfakes at Kempton. El Sbaa—who like the winner came on the outside—beat the others easily enough, so perhaps his turn will come in the Liverpool Cup on Friday.

With a full week in Scotland and meetings at Leicester, Bath, Hurst Park and Worcester, no fewer than 96 races will be decided this week. Over 2,000 horses are engaged, many of them in two and three races.

Best thing at Leicester to-day may be Scotia's Glen. An Ascot winner, she may again be seen to advantage in the Worksop Manor Plate.

Reconsider as the Think Twice filly week.

Reconsider, as the Think Twice filly, was little more than a stone behind Mid-Day Sun in their two-year-old days. With 7st. 4lb. she must have a big chance in the Prince of Wales's Handicap.

KING'S GAP TESTED

King's Gap, a candidate for the Stewards' Cup to be run at Goodwood to-morrow week, was tried at Newmarket yesterday. Ridden by W. Wells, he won easily over five furlings. Safariland was second, Cleora third, and Prince Hal fourth.

Hal fourth.

K. Robertson has been engaged to ride Irenicon in the Stewards' Cup.
