NEWMARKET SALES

Seventeen lots were sold for a total of 2,206 guineas at the morning session of the Newmarket Sales yesterday. The best price was for Ruby Tiger, which was bought by Mr. R. Scott for 500 guineas from the Fitzroy House stables. Mr. J. Howie gave 400 guineas for the four-year-old gelding Tecla Pearl. Next best price was 300 guineas, which was bid by Fred Winter for the four-year-old colt Master Cast.

CAMBRIDGESHIRE MOUNTS

Two more Cambridgeshire mounts are announced. Pat Beasley has been engaged for Kant II, and P. Evans rides Scarlet Princess.

More Inquests

By BOUVERIE

BACK to Newmarket and the old inquests and old arguments caused by that "Newmarket angle." On a wide course where the "pitch" of the stands gives spectators and the judge such different views of a close finish, when horses are spread across the track, unanimity can never be expected. Knowing my "angle," I have long given up an opinion of a tight finish, though that is not to say I'm free from surprises.

I had one yesterday when Knighted finished second to Lady Ludlow's Ipsden in a storming finish for the Great Eastern Handicap, and Frozepe, who looked a winner until Sam Wragg came on the scene, was not in the first three.

Lady Ludlow

Half an hour earlier a lot of people had been surprised that Rockliffe filly had been caught by First Off and Oratress in the Maiden Plate, overlooking the fact that the horse on the far side invariably appears to have the advantage. Better drawn, Rockliffe filly would probably have won, and she is certainly worth another chance. Frozepe was also on the stiffer part of the course, but he was cleverly beaten on merit by Ipsden this time.

Douane, as I thought she would, confirmed her Warwick superiority over Game Cart, who again dropped out in most disappointing fashion. Richards also upset Manton ideas when Never Surprised floored the odds laid on Flag of Truce. Maybe the latter did not relish another race so soon after Newbury.

Richards, however, softened the two blows when Bookseller's turn came, for gallant as Gothic struggled, he never looked like catching Lord Astor's horse. Bombay Duck made a big effort to repeat her Doncaster victory in the Abingdon Mile Nursery, but the weight just beat her, and Harry Blackshaw went nearer to losing his allowance with a clever win on Linn of Dee.

Rezende was prominent all the way, and as he was giving the winner 18lb. he should be worth another chance.

To-day's Card

Best prize to-day is the October Handicap, but I confess to more interest in Constellate's attempt to win the Clayton Handicap for the second year in succession, and the meeting of Ann of Austria and Silver Spear II in the Hopeful Stakes.

Although she has not won this season, Constellate has never run a really bad race. In face of tips for Path of Peace, Bright Beam and Pavanna, I think her turn will come at length.

Silver Spear II, receiving 14lb., bustled up Mirza II at Goodwood, so getting 11lb. he may beat Ann of Austria, but it is likely to be a very near thing.

Bird's Eye and Barrystar are the pair I like most in the October Handicap, with a preference for the latter on his Doncaster win.
