COMPANY MEETINGS

BEECHAMS PILLS LIMITED

The tenth ordinary general meeting of Beechams Pills, Limited, was held yesterday at the May Fair Hotel, London, W.

the May Fair Hotel, London, W. Mr. Philip E. Hill (the chairman) said that the profit of £600,908, although a record in the com-pany's history and an increase over that of last year of £59,498, was disappointing in so far as the home sales were concerned. That was attri-butable entirely to the exceptionally mild winter experienced and the adverse effect it had had on the sale of the company's seasonal products. However, was most encouraging and showed an increase over last year's figures of more than £20,000.

$20,000. Some ninety years ago the business of Beechams Fills was founded by the late Thomas Beecham and to-day the Beecham factory at St. Helens produced over 11,000,000 pills per week, and that was entirely apart from the production of the Beecham factories in different parts of

of the Beecham factories in different parts of the world. The directors had continued their policy of extensive advertising and general propaganda, and he thought they could safely congratulate themselves on the results. Their development fund was still fathering new products and their overseas trade. The directors recommended again bringing that reserve up to £100,000.

COMPANY'S PRODUCTS

again bringing that reserve up to £100,000. COMPANY'S PRODUCTS The company owned and marketed the fol-lowing proprietary articles:—Beechams Pills, Beechams Powders, Beechams Lung Syrup, Cassell's Tablets, Venos' Lightning Cough Cure, Cicta, Dinnetords Magnesia and Tablets, Germo-lene Ohtment and Soap, Holloway's Pills and Ointment, Iron Jelloids, Lactopeptine, Nicocin, Phensic, Phosferine, Asthon and Parsons Baby Powders, Phyllosan, Sherley's Dog and Cat Foods and Medicines, Yeast-Vite Tablets, Amami Shampoos and other products. The proposed bonus issue of preference shares redeemed at average periods over the next ten years would require, with the premium on re-demption, an additional £45,000 annually. That should be provided without imposing difficulties on the company in continuing the payment of a dividend of 85 per cent, provided, of course, that unforeseen events outside the control of the board did not arise. The frectors were of opinion that it would be of enormous value to their business if more of their customers could have a financial interest in the company and so benefit by its prosperity. Their existing five shilling deferred shares fluc-tuated in price during a year between, say, stand these, "The customers, "The customers, "The customers, customers were evond the backbone of their business, "The directors were exploring every channel to see whether it was not possible to devise a schome wheeyby an interest in their company could not be offered in a unit with a market purchase Price around five shillings. He would not be misunderstood, 'No fresh issue of capital for cash was contemplated, and ff a scheme was devised, it would be submitted to every shareholder for approval. A BONUS ISSUE

A BONUS ISSUE

A BONUS ISSUE The directors had felt for a long time past that the present share capital of the company did not represent the intrinsic value of the assets. Accordingly, they had revalued the investments in their subsidiary companies with the result that Messrs. Price, Waterhouse and Co. had ad-vised the company that the value of such invest-ments was not less than £2,500,000 and the value of such investments had accordingly been placed at that figure and the increase in value placed to a capital reserve account. From that account $300,000 had been transferred to general reserve. and it was proposed to capitalise that sum imme-diately into 5 per cent. redeemable cumulative preference shares of £1 each, which it was pro-posed to issue as a bonus credited as fully paid to the holders of deferred shares in the propor-tion of one such £1 share for each four deferred shares of 5s, each at present held. Those shares on or before March $1, 1949, or by yearly drawings of 22s, per share. They possessed a business which to-day was stronger than it had ever been and under ordi-nary condition should continue to make increas-ing profits. They report was unanimously adopted and a

The report was unanimously adopted and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the chair-man, directors and staff. At subsequent meetings the capital proposals were approved.

CONTINENTAL centres as well as Johannesburg were closed yesterday for Ascension Day.

That resulted in even less business than of late in markets generally, although the speculative gold shares were again very much in evidence.

Western Holdings were a very lively market. The price rose to 22s. at one time and finished at 21s. 7½d.

and finished at 21s. 7<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>d. News that Selection Trust has secured options over mineral rights in the Western Holdings district is important. The trust is joining Union Corporation in the business which the latter recently concluded with Western Holdings. Such activity by the finance houses leads to the opinion that dis-coveries on the new field are more important than actually stated. I understand that many holders of West Wits shares are switching over to Western Holdings and South African Townships shares.

SMALL INVESTORS

SMALL INVESTORS Mr. Philip E. Hill at yesterday's meeting of Beechams Pills made a most interesting refer-ence to the 5s, deferred shares of the company. He said that the price of the shares fluctuated last year between 50s, and 65s. This figure is regarded as beyond the means of the small investor. Schemes are now being considered whereby an interest in the company can be secured in a unit with a price around 5s. No fresh issue of capital for cash is contemplated. POINTS FROM

By BOUVERIE

OFFICE bookmakers soon tired of the price fixed for Pasch at the latest club callover when a big run was made on the favourite yesterday. From 5 to 2 they promptly cut his price to 2 to 1, and as I have held all along even that will probably seem a good price on the day.

Others in request yesterday were Mirza II and Pound Foolish, but backers of either of this pair are taking a chance about the going.

My Manton news is that Cave Man went every bit as well as Pound Foolish in their latest gallop. The doubt may still exist as to whether Cave Man will run if the ground is hard, but he is pretty sure to be there with an improved chance should present conditions alter

Gallop to Decide

Just the reverse, of course is the case of Mirza II, who even with an artist like Harry Wragg to "hold him up," would surely flounder in the last half-mile on soft ground. Whether the King's colours will be carried in the race is to be decided after I cence has been galloped to-day. A Jockey Club reminder to local Stewards of the necessity of exer-cising their powers of exhibiting all neces-sary information con-cerning o bjections should put an end to the present hush-hush policy still adopted cn some courses.

 Mr. Wahney's horse was again ridden by Robertson, whose first mount it was since his latt from General Kid at Birmingham.
 The Dentist and Carnival Boy had the race between them all the way up the straight. The Dentist lasting it out too well for Simpson's mount.

Dentist fasting it out too wen for simpson's mount. Reward won his first race since he has been at Lambourn in taking the Whitehawk Welter -somewhat luckily from Oo-er. The latter had fully six lengths to make up in the last furlong, but he set about the task to such purpose that many onlookers were pro-pared for a dead-heat.

The Rt. Hon, Lord Southwood of Fernhurst (the chairman and managing director), who pre- sided, said that the profit for the year amounted to £340,192 as compared to £351,553 for the previous year, a reduction of £11,361. That was chiefly due to the disturbance of trade conse- quent upon the Coronation celebrations. With regard to the trading account, the reduction of £42,700 in the trading profit must be taken in conjunction with the increase of £25,100 in dividends and interest receivable, which, in effect, represented trading profit must be taken in conjunction with the increase of £69,000. The greater part of that was represented by the ex- journal. "Woman." That publication had already proved to be very successful and had attained a weekly met sale of more than 500,000 copies, with the commensurate advertisement revenue. It was already the leading journal in the field of women's weeklies. With regard to Odhams (Watford), Ltd., the programme of extension foreshadowed last year to handle the large volume of work available. The Speedry process of colour printing, of which the company had the sole British rights, was yould be made shortly in order to finance those extensions to the factory and plant of the com- pany. It was intended that preferential oppor- tunities to subscribe would be offered to the shareholders of all the Odhams croup.	INDUSTRIALSImp.
