AT WINDSOR

How Will Colombo Go in Leger Call-Over?

TO-DAY'S HINTS

By BOUVERIE

By BOUVERIE

CONGRATULATIONS were not lacking at Windsor on Saturday when the small but clever South African boy, Terry Ryan, won the Slough Selling Handicap on Verford. This was Ryan's third success of the week out of five mounts, and his other happy efforts were on Aquila at Folkestone and on Satiric on Friday. Ryan is settling down into a fine jockey, and with the nursery season opening up we shall probably hear more of him.

robably hear more of him.

* * *

Two of the other races on the card went to women owners, Mrs. Corlette Glorney taking the Queen's Handicap with Effaceable and Miss L. M. Talbot the "Test" Plate with Fordilia. And at Redcar Miss Pratt-Barlow was successful in the Lowther Welter Handicap with Winsome Prince. Since the present flat racing season began nearly 100 women owners have had their colours carried to the front

Owner's Luck

Owner's Luck

Mrs. Corlette Glorney certainly made a most judicious purchase when she gave 560 guineas for Effaceable after she had won at Lingfield in May of last year. The filly won for her new owner at the first time of asking, and later in the season was again successful at Newmarket. This year Effaceable captured the Newmarket Handicap of £545 and the Robert Wilmot Handicap of £588 at Windsor in June. And so we find Mrs. Glorney winning five handicaps with a horse bought out of a seller.

Miss Talbot bought Fordilla as a yearling at Newmarket for 680 guineas. When making her debut on One Thousand Guineas day Fordilla finished last of all in the race won by Gynerium, and she was again well beaten at the Newmarket Second Spring Meeting. But third time paid for all at Windsor. It was not by any means an easy victory, as it was only from the distance that she came on the scene and succeeded in outstaying Priority and The Trend gelding.

In practically every race at Redcar there was keen rivalry between northern and southern stables. Adonis did not make the long trip from Stockbridge in vain, for he won the valuable Foal Plate. Close home it appeared as though Ricochet, who was running for the first time, would win, for she was in the lead and going well. Joe Childs, on Adonis, was then lying about fourth, but, riding a most powerful finish, he passed Lady Worlington and then Ricochet to win by a length. The heavily-backed Willowmead was always struggling under his big weight.

St. Leger Call-Over

What of the St. Leger position as it is left now? Colombo is likely to become rather easier in the market, but, fit and well, the bookmakers will not be taking any liberties with Lord Glanely's colt when a definite announcement is made regarding his jockey. It remains to be seen how quickly he will recover from his stoppage in work. He was in physic over the week-end, and was confined to exercise in the home paddocks yesterday morning, but it is expected that he will resume work shortly Windsor Lad, the St. Leger favourite, moved in good style when given a capital pace gallop over nine furlongs at Lambourn on Saturday in company with Bloater and Black Tulip. All being well he will take his chance in the Great Yorkshire Stakes at the forthcoming York meeting—that is unless the going forces a change of plans. Doncaster is still a long way off, but to those who oppose favourites some interesting chances are presented.

Tiberius has been supported at times for the St. Leger. Sir A. Bailey's colt has had a nice rest since the Derby, and although he has a welter impost he should survive the test in the Foal Plate at Redcar to-day. Peacock will provide a fancied runner in Moneybox. This colt has shown up in fine style in recent gallops, Terry Ryan, who rode three winners in five mounts last week.

BEST FROM THE BOOK After his convincing display at Haydock. BUNKER

will be difficult to overcome in the Wilton Maiden Stakes at Redcar. PAGE BOY.

but I shall not look beyond Tiberius. He is well up to the weight and will want a lot of stopping. * * *

"Horses for courses" has been working out well lately. Light o' Love knows his way over the Redcar track and should carry Perryman to success in the Redcar Handicap. Abbots Ferry won over the course in May and will be ridden by Dines, and danger is expected from Colonel Gaunt. But Light o' Love's running behind Young Native in the Brighton Cup indicates that he will require a deal of beating.

For my £20 postcard prize this week the race chosen is the Middlesbrough Welter Handlcap at Stockton on Thursday; in the event of a tie or ties the prize money will be divided, and my decision on all points must always be accepted

J. Hine and G. Nicoll, the two jockeys who were injured at Windsor on Friday, have made satisfactory progress towards recovery. It is hoped that Hine will be well enough to return home to-day. Nicoll will remain at the hospital for a few days longer in order to undergo a further X-ray examination.
