VALEDICTORY SHINES ON DULL DAY

By BOUVERIE

AT GOODWOOD

SUNSHINE deserted Goodwood's second stage, but really we hardly missed it in an afternoon's racing which put many first-day efforts quite in the shade. After Ireland it was America's turn in the Stakes, won by Valedictory for Mr. J. H. Whitney, in a fine finish with High Rank

O'ein and Rose of England colt " came back ' with a double for Lord Glanely, Harry Wragg gave one of his most spectacular performances in getting Mickey the Greek home in the very last stride, and Tout Change made a gallant if unsuccessful attempt to give 27lb. to Cantatrice II in the Trundle Handicap. Valedictory had not won a race since he scored in the Gordon Stakes here a year ago, but he was quite well backed, even if there was more support for others, including Oracion and Winnebar.

The latter was a victim of misfortune. When lying well up he was cut into and pulled up. I saw no excuse for Oracion, who never looked like getting out of the middle division, and none for Foxchase, who plodded on in much the same position throughout.

Valentin Runs Well and Black Speck.

Valentin was running on well at the finish, and although Black Speck beat him comfortably for third place, I shall be surprised and disappointed if Cottrill does not win a nice race with this six-year-old.

Many of us thought that Cosmohone had just lasted long enough to beat Mickey the Greek, but there were no illusions about the fate of Tout Change, even though the margin was only a head.

was only a head.

Olein looked like being caught first by Moon Ray and then by the fast finishing Orleans, but there never appeared the slightest possibility of a repetition of the Sandown tragedy for Rose of England colt.

Nizami kept him company for about two fur-longs, but once clear Rose of England colt ran on as straight as a die. "funny eve." but he can go.

THE Aga Khan

Newmarker, Wednesday.

THE Aga Khan has a good chance to win another two-year-old race at Goodwood te-morrow. On his form at Liverpool, Bashir should account for the opposition in the Rous Memorial Stakes.

Willow Knight was an easy winner at Newmarket last month, and he has done well since. He should not be far away in the Singleton Handicap.

Bombay Duck is likely to prove our best in the Drayton Handicap although Pegasus will be hard to beat.

PAGE BOY'S SYSTEM HORSE

In the Goodwood Cup to-day DUBONNET should be seen to advantage if started. PAGE BOY. Stake one point.

PORTWAY LANE BEST THING FOR TO-DAY

IF weights and measures count for anything in racing Dubonnet should surely win the Goodwood Cup to-day.

Compared with the Cesarewitch, Dubonnet.

beaten a length and a half, meets Contrevent on no less than 30lb, better terms. But I heard last night that he is amiss and not a certain runner.

Should Dubonnet miss the race my choice would be Challenge. This cott is on the up grade and with all his weight will make a bold bid.
Sprint handicaps are not the safest mediums for betting, yet I am inclined to regard Portway I ame as the best thing of the day. On his best form he is nicely handicapped, and Gordon is the man to see that he loses no time at the start. Best of the others in the Singleton Handicap may be Willow Knight.

Zaimis Again?

Zaimis showed a return to his best form when winning at Lingfield, and with Harry Wragg being available I'm looking for the victory to the repeated in the Drayton Handicap. Bombay Duck and Pegasus also have good chances, particularly the former on her best form.

Consistent Lover's Fate has as good a chance as most in the Craven Handicap, but don't forget that Goodwood is often a lucky course for Mr. J. B. Joel, whose Guard was a clever winner last time out.

Bashir looks the one for the Rous Memorial Stakes after his good fight against the "warm's Fair Test at Liverpool, and Hummate should be too good for Tullyford in the Foxhall Stakes.

WHITE LEADS IN OUR GOLF TOURNEY

WITH an aggregate of 145 (74 and 71). G. M. White, of the local club, led the field at the end of the second round of the Daily Mirror Assistant Golf Professionals' Tournament at the Notts Club, Hollinwell, yester-

White, who was established favourite following his fine play in the Irish open championship, in which he was placed fourth, yesterday finished two strokes in front of R. J. Taylor (Potters Bar), with three others—R. A. Knight (Ashridge), W. S. Cullum (West Herts) and J. R. Shoesmith (Altrincham)—a further stroke behind.

Stroke behind.

Unfucklest player of the day was R. Jennings (Dore and Tottey). He sliced into the rough at the eighth, found a ball and played it, only to discover that it was not his. He had to go back to play his own ball and incurred a penalty of two strokes the hole costing him 7. Nevertheless, he finished in 75 for a total of 150.
