AS NORTH'S STAR JUVENILE

By BOUVERIE

MANCHESTER carried on with one of the Manufester carried on with one of the well yesterday, but plenty of runners were on the spot and the racing was much better than might have been expected in the circumstances. Best thing of the day was supposed to be Trios Pistoles, a half-brother to the Oaks winner, Galatea II, who had earned the reputation of being the best two-year-old in the north, and a pretty good one at that.

Instead of another spectacular win to match that on his first and only appearance, Trios Pistoles was well and truly beaten by Snowstorm coll, another from Yorkshire, who gave Beary a comfortable length victory.

The winner had not won a race in his five previous attempts, but he had managed to finish third on four occasions.

Those two veterans, the Hon George Lambton and Brownle Carslake, shared a nice double with Quarteroon and Tsetse Fly both of which carried the colours that Pretty Polly made famous, smallest crowds ever seen at Castle Irade lamous, Quatteroon had been a disappointment on everal previous occasions, and it required all arslake's strength to get him home from Spot

Tsetse Fly's Smart Win

Tsetse Fly had a much easier task to win the Palatine Plate, and it is obvious that this daughter of Tetratema is still on the up-grade. The consistent Dapple oolt showed good speed and hung with grim determination to beat Stratiform colt for second place.

Mr. Lambton had a third success when Silksworth, also in Major McCalmont's colours, upset the better fancied Melitos in the Spinners Plate. It was Fred Lane's good luck that Carslake cannot "do" 8st., and he certainly made the most of it.

Snipe Wood attempts to win the Prince Edward Handicap for the second year in succession this afternoon, and in spite of his rise in the weights they think he is sure to go close. Lord Fitzwilliam's horse looks handicapped to beat Winnebar again, but the latter is probably better than he was this time last year. He is certainly the one for a place bet.

Contrevent will certainly get the distance, so will Ninas, but they may all be beaten by Mubarak, who I am assured has never been better than he is at the moment.

Henri Jelliss may have the distinction of winning the first nursery of the season with Hot Flash, and Aliure should complete a hattrick by taking the Yarn Plate.

MUBARAK FANCIED FOR BIG RACE

Our four probable runners for the Prince Edward Handicap at Manchester have come through their preparations in good style.

There is a good race to be won by Contrevent when the handicapper lets him down a little. He may have too much weight now.

Mubarak is a useful stayer who can carry weight.

Mubarak is a useful stayer who can carry weight.

Snipe Wood won the race last year, but has gone up 17lb.—a big penalty.

The distance will not beat Holbein, but he loses his races through lack of finishing speed. If the race comes to Newmarket I believe it will be won by Mubarak. Selections:—

Shirley's 'chasing meeting, arranged for Monday, has been abandoned. It is also extremely unlikely that racing will

Girl Cyclist's Record Ride

Famous girl cyclist, Miss Marguerite Wilson, of Bournemouth, twenty-one-year-old member of the Hercules record-breaking old member of the Hercules record-breaking team, yesterday scored her greatest triumph when she reached John o' Groats, having accomplished the remarkable feat of riding the 870 miles from Land's End in two days twenty-two hours fifty-two minutes, with only three hours' sleep.

Miss Wilson heats the record set up by Mrs. Lilian Dredge, of Uxbridge, by no less than twenty-two hours two minutes. Her average speed, including all stops, was over twelve miles an hour.

BOTT OF RANGERS HAS RETIRED

BY A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

After twelve years as a professional footballer, Wilfred Bott, who for the past three seasons was Queen's Park Rangers' right winger, has retired.

"I could have been transferred to Southend or Swansea Town," he told the Daily Mirror. "but I know my football career is nearly at an end.

"I thought it was about time I found a permanent job, so I applied to the L.P.T.B., and am now a bus conductor.

"Don't think I've given up football. As a matter of fact, I'm waiting for my amateur permit to come through so that I can play for permit to come through so that I can play for the Transport Board."

Bott has been appointed secretary of the football club at Alperton bus garage. He started his Soccer career in 1927 with Doncaster-Rovers and in 1931 was transferred to Huddersfield Town. Three years later he went to Newcastle United and from there to Rangers.

Ronald, his ten-year-old son, is also a footballer, but his father says: "If he's good enough to play he can do so, but not as a full-time professional."

DONCASTER SALES OFF

The important bloodstock sales at Doncaster which were to have taken place next week have been postponed indefinitely.

WILL the growing percentage of women fans among football crowds tend to make them more ladylike, or will they still, ten or twenty years hence, threaten to shout the tops off the stands when they suspect a foul?

It's an interesting point, and one which may be intriguing more than one club secretary.

It was Theo Kelly, of Everton, the expert on football crowd psychology—he's been known to champion the women before—who confided in me his views.

According to him, women are less self-conscious in shouting their opinions, and as a body more lusty than the stronger sex,

Make Themselves Heard

"Considering there is still only about one woman to every hundred men at our matches, this is vividly proved," said Kelly,

"The working man, for the most part, seldom brings his wife or girl friend, but small gangs of feminine enthusiasts come on their own, and certainly make themselves heard

"However, don't you believe they're solely attracted by the sex appeal of the players. They're just as keen on the game, with as wide a knowledge of its skill and tactics as the average man."

So the answer to any H. G. Wellsian suppositions seems to be that football crowds of 1960 certainly won't be less ear-splitting,

After all, why shouldn't a poor girl have
